Red-Downed U.S. Airplane May Have Been Unarmed

FOR THAT HONEYMOON CRUISE — The royal yacht Brittania, dubbed the "quietest ship in the world," slipped up the Thames to London. When it glides down again, it will be carrying Princess Margaret and Antony Armstrong-Jones on their honeymoon.

Will Meg Wed Commoner, Or Will Tony Get a Title?

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret's wedding eve and the big question today was whether she would marry a commoner.

Or will Queen Elizabeth II elevate bridegroom-to-be Antony Armstrong-Jones to the peerage?

If Armstrong-Jones goes to the altar Friday in Westminster Abbey without a title, Margaret will be the first English princess in 450 years to marry a plain mister.

Final preparations went ahead for the big event, which has drawn thousands of tourists from the United States and Europe three weeks before the start of the usual tourist season.

By tonight the stage will be set, the route from Buckingham Palace to the Abbey bright with flowers, and the first spectators will be taking up places for an overnight wait on the sidewalk.

The crowds are expected to be the greatest since Elizabeth's coronation. Thousands of extra police were called into the city to control them.

Fifty thousand cheering fans mobbed the princess and Armstrong-Jones Wednesday night as they were driven to the 1,000-guest reception and dinner dance the Queen and Prince Philip gave for them at Buckingham Palace.

Mounted police shepherded the big maroon Rolls Royce through as the crowd broke through police lines and slowed the car to a crawl. Margaret and her fiance waved and smiled as shouts of "good luck!" went up from the mass of struggling men and women.

Sue Hammel Valedictorian For CHS; Davis Salutatorian

Sue Hammel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hammel, 531 S. Court St., has been named valedictorian of the 1960 graduating class of Circleville High School.

Salutatorian of the class is John Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis, 120 Montclair Ave. The announcements were made today by J. Wray Henry, principal of Circleville High School.

Miss Hammel compiled a four-year school grade average of 3.861 to lead her class. Davis's average, for second place was 3.815.

SUE HAMMEL

The top 1960 CHS senior majored in a classical course during high school and plans to attend Capital University, Bexley.

Davis also majored in a classical course in preparation to entering Michigan University, Ann Arbor, Mich., in the fall.

Commencement exercises will be held May 27 in the CHS gymnasium.

General Tele Rate Hearing Drones On

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Utilities Commission's hearing on whether or not to grant General Telephone Co. of Ohio a 17 per cent rate increase entered its third day of testimony with no apparent end to the hearing in sight.

Officials from both sides, attorneys representing the telephone company and those representing the cities affected by the increase, estimated the hearing would end anywhere from "a day or two," to "a few weeks."

Paul Betty, assistant vice president of finance for the General Telephone and Electronics Corp. of New York, took the stand today again to answer questions on why he though a 6.8 per cent rate of return would be reasonable for the Ohio company.

Everett H. Krueger Jr., one of three commissioners presiding at the hearing, cross-examined Betty attempting to clarify some of Betty's economic terminology given in his testimony yesterday and today.

Krueger asked Betty why a rate of return must be greater than the cost of capital. General Telephone is basing its proposed 6.8 rate increase on the cost of its capital.

Betty said: "My testimony is based on my opinion of what a company needs as a rate of return that will allow it to expand its existing capital as well as improve service to the customers."

When asked by Krueger if, economically speaking, there was any difference between the rate of return and cost of capital, Betty said no, adding that "a regulated company like General Telephone does not necessarily have to have a rate of return in excess of its cost of capital."

About 20 persons were on hand at this morning's hearing.

If the rate increase is granted, the company, which serves almost 900,000 people with more than 200,000 telephones, would receive $2,941,645 more a year. But of this amount, $1,572,624 would go to state and federal taxes, which would leave the company $1,369,027 more revenue annually.

Mysterious Gasoline Flow Halts Digging

NEW YORK (AP) — A mysterious underground flow of gasoline —going on for the past 15 days at the rate of 500 gallons daily— may halt work on a big Manhattan project. To make it more mysterious, no one has reported losing the volatile liquid.

The gasoline pours into two 18-feet-deep excavations on West 40th street near Ninth avenue at the site of the $19,000,000 addition to the Port of New York Authority Bus Terminal. The excavations, part of the foundation, eventually must reach 30 feet.

"We're stymied if this continues," Francis G. Carey, the terminal's resident engineer, said Wednesday. "We can't sink the foundation any deeper with gasoline still underground. It's much too dangerous."

The automotive-type fuel sometimes is pure and at other times is brownish in color or mixed with water. Geologists, technicians and engineers are puzzling over the source.

One geologist said the source could be miles away and coming in via an underground stream. It might be coming from a sewer leak. Gasoline stations in the area report no loss from their tanks.

The fire hazard is acute. Firemen have been posted on duty around the clock. An eight-foot high fence has been erected to prevent anyone flipping a lighted cigarette. Workmen use spark-proof shovels made of wood and bronze.

Luther was caught in the well, behind his home at nearby Burlington, late Wednesday afternoon. The fight to save him, carried on all night as several hundred persons gathered at the scene, had to be halted from time to time as sides of the well crumbled.

No Sparks Seen At Dem 'Debate'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) and John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) met head-on in a 'elevision debate last Wednesday night at Charleston, W. Va.

The two rivals for the Democratic presidential nomination produced no sparks, no fireworks. The tone was mild and unbitter.

Humphrey did take issue with a constant Kennedy refrain—that Humphrey has no chance to be nominated and a vote for him in West Virginia's May 10 primary is wasted.

Asked if he thought he had a chance, Humphrey said:

"I most surely do."

He added "No Democrat has this nomination tied up. If you have 200 (convention) votes you're just as much alive politically as the man with 500 votes."

The debate was televised over a state network, but was seen in some out-of-state cities.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, unopposed for the Republican presidential nomination, had kind words in New York Wednesday for the man who bowed out of the race against him—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Nixon told a news conference Rockefeller has "tremendous support throughout the country for national office among the Republicans." But he begged off on any direct expression that he wants Rockefeller for his running mate and put it up to the governor. In Albany Rockefeller repeated that he won't accept the second place spot.

There have been reports that Nixon would like to have Rockefeller on the ticket. Nixon's statement Wednesday was viewed in some quarters as an attempt to make sure no one would put the blame at his door if Rockefeller continues adamant about refusing the vice presidential nomination.

Footnotes on Tuesday's primaries:

District of Columbia: Complete unofficial returns in the presidential popularity poll: Humphrey 7,831, Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) 5,866. The only non-Humphrey delegate candidate to win a convention seat was a Morse delegate. Humphrey is assured of all nine D.C. convention votes because of a unit rule.

Indiana: On nearly complete returns, Nixon's plurality over Kennedy in the respective GOP and Democratic primaries was more than 50,000 votes. Nixon had 400,291 to Kennedy's 350,190, but the Democratic party outpolled the Republican total 433,957 to 418,039. Leaders of both parties claimed sustenance and cheer from the results.

Alabama: States Rights candidates for presidential elector, pledged to bolt the Democratic party if it picks a nominee they disapprove, apparently held firm control over a portion of the state's votes in the electoral college. Three States Righters clearly won on the basis of incomplete returns. All but one of the remaining eight candidates in the top 11 were States Righters. If the trend continues those eight would get another chance in a May 31 runoff election against party Loyalist candidates.

'Single-Shot' Voters Dent DiSalle Slate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The time-honored political device of the "single shot"—or something so closely akin to it as to be a kissing cousin—helped dent Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's hopes for a solid favorite-son delegation to the Democratic national convention.

At least two single-shot candidacies paid off for a dissident Democratic slate pledged to Cuyahoga County Engineer Albert S. Porter.

They are among seven delegate votes picked up in Tuesday's primary election by the Porter slate which Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Ray T. Miller set up when the DiSalle forces refused to give Miller as many delegate seats as Miller wanted.

Since both DiSalle and Miller slates are pledged, in turn, to Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts for the Democratic presidential nomination, the turn of events in the Ohio primary race meant little to the presidential aspirant. DiSalle said he was "pleased" at the results and Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said he was "grateful." Miller had no comment.

It might almost be said that the entry of a statewide Porter slate of only 14 half-vote delegate candidates against a full slate of 36 entered by DiSalle was single-shotting to a degree. When the last 749 Cuyahoga County polling places are finally counted today, it may show two victories for the Porter group. Joseph Sweeney of Cleveland of the Porter group has won a convention spot and Miller himself won a second.

Single-shooting is a term usually applied to voters. If a voter casts only one vote in a race where several candidates are to be elected he gives added weight to his vote by casting a ballot for a single individual. The extra strength comes from the fact that he does not give aid to his favorite's rivals.

The Miller forces tried the single-shot technique in eight of Ohio's congressional districts. In seven others they had two candidates, the same number as the DiSalle slate.

They were successful with a single-shot for Carl R. Finegan in the 13th District and for William P. Brown in the 15th.

Hammer Slayer Pleads Insanity

CLEVELAND (AP)—Walter W. Brass, 40, of suburban Euclid, pleading innocent by reason of insanity, was bound over to the grand jury Wednesday on a first-degree murder charge in the April 26 hammer slaying of his 3-year old daughter, Janet. Brass' attorney waived a preliminary hearing while entering the plea.

Police said Brass, whose daughter, Gail, 18 months, also died of hammer-inflicted injuries, was unable to say why he went berserk. Brass' wife, Lillian, 36, and two other children, William, 8, and Lynda, 6, are still hospitalized with injuries suffered in the attack.

Chessman Said Mum To Foil Harm to Child

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Caryl Chessman's attorney claims the convicted sex bandit chose death in San Quentin's gas chamber rather than jeopardize his 17-year old daughter's safety by naming the real red light bandit.

Chessman was executed Monday. To the last he maintained his innocence, but steadfastly refused to name the man he said he knew committed the 1948 kidnap-robbery-sex abuse crimes in Los Angeles lovers' lanes.

"Caryl was afraid the governor and the attorney general would brush off any claims about someone else being guilty," said Davis. "He said if he knew he would get a real hearing then he would trust himself to protect his family. But he was afraid that if he was brushed off then his daughter would be in danger and he wouldn't be in any better position himself."

The attorney said Chessman was married in 1940 and the couple had a daughter before being divorced. Chessman subsequently remarried and divorced again.

As far as is known, the existence of his first wife and a daughter never was revealed publicly before.

Diplomats Hint Pilot Alone, Unconscious

President Orders Probe of Report From Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today Soviet forces may have shot down an unarmed U.S. research plane with an unconscious pilot rather than a "military craft" as Premier Nikita Khrushchev claimed.

Under instruction from President Eisenhower, the department and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration issued reports on their inquiry into the assertion by Khrushchev that an American plane was shot down over the Soviet Union early Sunday.

The State Department report said a single-engine, high-altitude jet used in weather research, took off from Adana, Turkey, that day with a civilian pilot and has been missing since. The disappearance of the plane was announced last Tuesday.

"During the flight of this plane," the report said, "the pilot reported difficulty with his oxygen equipment.

"Mr. Khrushchev has announced that a U.S. plane has been shot down over the U.S.S.R. on that day. It may be that this was the missing plane.

"It is entirely possible that having a failure in the oxygen equipment which could result in the pilot losing consciousness, the plane continued on automatic pilot for a considerable distance and accidentally violated Soviet air space."

In the absence of immediate formal comment, officials privately took the stand that Khrushchev had read aggression into the flight of a U.S. weather research plane that may have wandered across the border with the pilot in trouble.

Khrushchev called the flight part of a series of aggressive actions and speeches by American leaders which he said threaten the success of the summit meeting this month. He threatened rocket retaliation if what he called aggressive flights by American bombers continue.

(In this general area a U.S. C130 transported was downed by Soviet forces in 1958. By U. S. reckoning, the Soviets accounted for only 6 of 17 men lost then. The U2, a ship assigned to National Aerotion, is a flying laboratory assigned to make weather observations and check air for adioactivity).

(The Pentagon said one man was aboard.)

Khrushchev called the plane incident an aggressive act, and asked rhetorically of the United States:

"If you think you can take such measures, why don't you think we can take similar measures when a plane appears over our territory and threatens the security of our country? We have the same rights as you, the same means as you.

"We have no bombers on duty, but we have rockets on duty. They are more accurate and trustworthy than your bombers."

Then came the threat to U.S. allies. Khrushchev said it is high time for those countries which have provided the United States with bases to realize they are playing with fire and that they, too, can suffer retaliatory blows.

The Soviet leader contended the American plane was sent on a mission to impress and frighten the Soviet Union on the eve of the summit.

Khrushchev did not disclose the type of plane, the number aboard or fate of the fliers.

Reds Shoot Down American Plane

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev told the Soviet Parliament in a bristling speech today that Soviet armed forces have shot down a plane he described as a U. S. military craft. He threatened to retaliate with rockets if American bombers appear over the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Premier's speech cast gloom over prospects for the summit conference opening in 11 days. He issued an unveiled threat to U. S. allies, took a hefty slap at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and charged that President Eisenhower's freedom of movement at the summit is being restricted by "certain U. S. circles."

Khrushchev referred angrily to Eisenhower's suggestion that Nixon might sit in for him at the summit if the President's presence is required in Washington on domestic matters.

Khrushchev said he had met Nixon several times and it was difficult for him not to gain the impression Nixon was the last person to think of stopping the cold war or ending the arms race.

"I am afraid that if Nixon becomes entitled to caory on negotiations at the summit, it would be, as we say in Russia, like sending a goat to take care of the cabbage," the Soviet Premier said.

The Supreme Soviet — Parliament session burst into a wave of applause as Khrushchev announced the downing of an American plane May 1.

A single-engine jet U2 research plane has been missing since May 1 after a takeoff in Turkey, Pentagon officials said. It is assumed to have come down near Lake Van, not far from the border of Soviet Armenia.

For the record, officials would not tie the Khrushchev speech directly to any missing U.S. plane.

But the only one reported missing anywhere in the area mentioned by Khrushchev is a U2 research craft which took off from Adana, Turkey, Sunday, with one man aboard.

The last report from the pilot of that craft was a message at 9 a.m. that day on an emergency frequency, reporting that the flier was experiencing "oxygen trouble" and planned to return. He was reported to be over the rugged mountainous area around Lake Van in southeast Turkey, not far from the borders of Iran and Soviet Armenia. A search has been going on in that vicinity.

The U2, described as essentially a flying laboratory, belongs to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and operates with Air Force supply and service support.

NASA said the plane's mission consists of high-altitude weather study and checks on such things as radioactive contamination from nuclear tests. The Pentagon called its assignment a joint NASA-Air Force weather service mission.

Cigarette-Cancer Directed Verdict To Be Appealed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Attorneys are appealing a directed verdict that denied a Pittsburgh carpenter damages on grounds he contracted lung cancer from smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

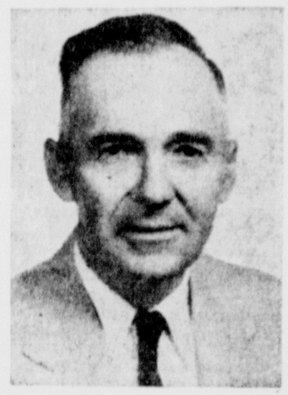

U. S. Dist. Judge John L. Miller Wednesday instructed the jury to return a directed verdict of acquittal for the Ligett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Otto Pritchard, 61, claimed he contracted lung cancer from smoking Chesterfields for more than 20 years. His cancerous right lung was removed in 1953. He sought $1,250,000 in damages.

In his instructions to the jury, Judge Miller said that "no substantial evidence has been offered to support a verdict against the defendant on any theory of negligence, and that fair-minded men could not differ as to the conclusions of the fact to be drawn from the evidence."

Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) and John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) met head-on in a television debate last Wednesday night at Charleston, W. Va.

The two rivals for the Democratic presidential nomination produced no sparks, no fireworks. The tone was mild and unbitter.

Humphrey did take issue with a constant Kennedy refrain—that Humphrey has no chance to be nominated and a vote for him in West Virginia's May 10 primary is wasted.

Asked if he thought he had a chance, Humphrey said:

"I most surely do."

He added "No Democrat has this nomination tied up. If you have 200 (convention) votes you're just as much alive politically as the man with 500 votes."

The debate was televised over a state network, but was seen in some out-of-state cities.

Nixon told a news conference Rockefeller has "tremendous support throughout the country for national office among the Republicans." But he begged off on any direct expression that he wants Rockefeller for his running mate and put it up to the governor. In Albany Rockefeller repeated that he won't accept the second place spot.

There have been reports that Nixon would like to have Rockefeller on the ticket. Nixon's statement Wednesday was viewed in some quarters as an attempt to make sure no one would put the blame at his door if Rockefeller continues adamant about refusing the vice presidential nomination.

Footnotes on Tuesday's primaries:

District of Columbia: Complete unofficial returns in the presidential popularity poll: Humphrey 7,831, Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) 5,866. The only non-Humphrey delegate candidate to win a convention seat was a Morse delegate. Humphrey is assured of all nine D.C. convention votes because of a unit rule.

Indiana: On nearly complete returns, Nixon's plurality over Kennedy in the respective GOP and Democratic primaries was more than 50,000 votes. Nixon had 400,291 to Kennedy's 350,190, but the Democratic party outpolled the Republican total 433,957 to 418,039. Leaders of both parties claimed sustenance and cheer from the results.

Alabama: States Rights candidates for presidential elector, pledged to bolt the Democratic party if it picks a nominee they disapprove, apparently held firm control over a portion of the state's votes in the electoral college. Three States Righters clearly won on the basis of incomplete returns. All but one of the remaining eight candidates in the top 11 were States Righters. If the trend continues those eight would get another chance in a May 31 runoff election against party Loyalist candidates.

'Single-Shot' Voters Dent DiSalle Slate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The time-honored political device of the "single shot"—or something so closely akin to it as to be a kissing cousin—helped dent Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's hopes for a solid favorite-son delegation to the Democratic national convention.

At least two single-shot candidacies paid off for a dissident Democratic slate pledged to Cuyahoga County Engineer Albert S. Porter.

They are among seven delegate votes picked up in Tuesday's primary election by the Porter slate which Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Ray T. Miller set up when the DiSalle forces refused to give Miller as many delegate seats as Miller wanted.

Since both DiSalle and Miller slates are pledged, in turn, to Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts for the Democratic presidential nomination, the turn of events in the Ohio primary race meant little to the presidential aspirant. DiSalle said he was "pleased" at the results and Democratic State Chairman William L. Coleman said he was "grateful." Miller had no comment.

It might almost be said that the entry of a statewide Porter slate of only 14 half-vote delegate candidates against a full slate of 36 entered by DiSalle was single-shotting to a degree. When the last 749 Cuyahoga County polling places are finally counted today, it may show two victories for the Porter group. Joseph Sweeney of Cleveland of the Porter group has won a convention spot and Miller himself won a second.

Single-shooting is a term usually applied to voters. If a voter casts only one vote in a race where several candidates are to be elected he gives added weight to his vote by casting a ballot for a single individual. The extra strength comes from the fact that he does not give aid to his favorite's rivals.

The Miller forces tried the single-shot technique in eight of Ohio's congressional districts. In seven others they had two candidates, the same number as the DiSalle slate.

They were successful with a single-shot for Carl R. Finegan in the 13th District and for William P. Brown in the 15th.

Hammer Slayer Pleads Insanity

CLEVELAND (AP)—Walter W. Brass, 40, of suburban Euclid, pleading innocent by reason of insanity, was bound over to the grand jury Wednesday on a first-degree murder charge in the April 26 hammer slaying of his 3-year old daughter, Janet. Brass' attorney waived a preliminary hearing while entering the plea.

Police said Brass, whose daughter, Gail, 18 months, also died of hammer-inflicted injuries, was unable to say why he went berserk. Brass' wife, Lillian, 36, and two other children, William, 8, and Lynda, 6, are still hospitalized with injuries suffered in the attack.

Chessman Said Mum To Foil Harm to Child

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Caryl Chessman's attorney claims the convicted sex bandit chose death in San Quentin's gas chamber rather than jeopardize his 17-year-old daughter's safety by naming the real red light bandit.

Chessman was executed Monday. To the last he maintained his innocence, but steadfastly refused to name the man he said he knew committed the 1948 kidnap-robbery-sex abuse crimes in Los Angeles lovers' lanes.

"Caryl was afraid the governor and the attorney general would brush off any claims about someone else being guilty," said Davis. "He said if he knew he would get a real hearing then he would trust himself to protect his family. But he was afraid that if he was brushed off then his daughter would be in danger and he wouldn't be in any better position himself."

The attorney said Chessman was married in 1940 and the couple had a daughter before being divorced. Chessman subsequently remarried and divorced again.

As far as is known, the existence of his first wife and a daughter never was revealed publicly before.

President Orders Probe of Report From Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today Soviet forces may have shot down an unarmed U.S. research plane with an unconscious pilot rather than a "military craft" as Premier Nikita Khrushchev claimed.

Under instruction from President Eisenhower, the department and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration issued reports on their inquiry into the assertion by Khrushchev that an American plane was shot down over the Soviet Union early Sunday.

The State Department report said a single-engine, high-altitude jet used in weather research, took off from Adana, Turkey, that day with a civilian pilot and has been missing since. The disappearance of the plane was announced last Tuesday.

"During the flight of this plane," the report said, "the pilot reported difficulty with his oxygen equipment.

"Mr. Khrushchev has announced that a U.S. plane has been shot down over the U.S.S.R. on that day. It may be that this was the missing plane.

"It is entirely possible that having a failure in the oxygen equipment which could result in the pilot losing consciousness, the plane continued on automatic pilot for a considerable distance and accidentally violated Soviet air space."

In the absence of immediate formal comment, officials privately took the stand that Khrushchev had read aggression into the flight of a U.S. weather research plane that may have wandered across the border with the pilot in trouble.

Khrushchev called the flight part of a series of aggressive actions and speeches by American leaders which he said threaten the success of the summit meeting this month. He threatened rocket retaliation if what he called aggressive flights by American bombers continue.

(In this general area a U.S. C130 transported was downed by Soviet forces in 1958. By U. S. reckoning, the Soviets accounted for only 6 of 17 men lost then. The U2, a ship assigned to National Aerotion, is a flying laboratory assigned to make weather observations and check air for adioactivity).

(The Pentagon said one man was aboard.)

Khrushchev called the plane incident an aggressive act, and asked rhetorically of the United States:

"If you think you can take such measures, why don't you think we can take similar measures when a plane appears over our territory and threatens the security of our country? We have the same rights as you, the same means as you.

"We have no bombers on duty, but we have rockets on duty. They are more accurate and trustworthy than your bombers."

Then came the threat to U.S. allies. Khrushchev said it is high time for those countries which have provided the United States with bases to realize they are playing with fire and that they, too, can suffer retaliatory blows.

The Soviet leader contended the American plane was sent on a mission to impress and frighten the Soviet Union on the eve of the summit.

Khrushchev did not disclose the type of plane, the number aboard or fate of the fliers.

Reds Shoot Down American Plane

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev told the Soviet Parliament in a bristling speech today that Soviet armed forces have shot down a plane he described as a U. S. military craft. He threatened to retaliate with rockets if American bombers appear over the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Premier's speech cast gloom over prospects for the summit conference opening in 11 days. He issued an unveiled threat to U. S. allies, took a hefty slap at Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and charged that President Eisenhower's freedom of movement at the summit is being restricted by "certain U. S. circles."

Khrushchev referred angrily to Eisenhower's suggestion that Nixon might sit in for him at the summit if the President's presence is required in Washington on domestic matters.

Khrushchev said he had met Nixon several times and it was difficult for him not to gain the impression Nixon was the last person to think of stopping the cold war or ending the arms race.

"I am afraid that if Nixon becomes entitled to caory on negotiations at the summit, it would be, as we say in Russia, like sending a goat to take care of the cabbage," the Soviet Premier said.

The Supreme Soviet — Parliament session burst into a wave of applause as Khrushchev announced the downing of an American plane May 1.

A single-engine jet U2 research plane has been missing since May 1 after a takeoff in Turkey, Pentagon officials said. It is assumed to have come down near Lake Van, not far from the border of Soviet Armenia.

For the record, officials would not tie the Khrushchev speech directly to any missing U.S. plane.

But the only one reported missing anywhere in the area mentioned by Khrushchev is a U2 research craft which took off from Adana, Turkey, Sunday, with one man aboard.

The last report from the pilot of that craft was a message at 9 a.m. that day on an emergency frequency, reporting that the flier was experiencing "oxygen trouble" and planned to return. He was reported to be over the rugged mountainous area around Lake Van in southeast Turkey, not far from the borders of Iran and Soviet Armenia. A search has been going on in that vicinity.

The U2, described as essentially a flying laboratory, belongs to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and operates with Air Force supply and service support.

NASA said the plane's mission consists of high-altitude weather study and checks on such things as radioactive contamination from nuclear tests. The Pentagon called its assignment a joint NASA-Air Force weather service mission.

It is a single-engine, one-man jet capable of extremely high altitude operation, as high as 55,000 feet. Speed was sacrificed to the high altitude mission. Officials said the craft flies unarmed.

Word of the Khrushchev speech came just after President Eisenhower had taken off by helicopter on a surprise flight to a National Security Council session shifted out of Washington to a secret location as a feature of the Operation Alert practice for a possible emergency.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said at that time that he knew nothing of the Khrushchev speech or the plane incident. His indication was that Eisenhower also was in the dark.

Hagerty declined to comment on whether there might be any reconsideration of plans for the Paris summit conference or presidential plans to go to the Soviet Union.

Cigarette-Cancer Directed Verdict To Be Appealed

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Attorneys are appealing a directed verdict that denied a Pittsburgh carpenter damages on grounds he contracted lung cancer from smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

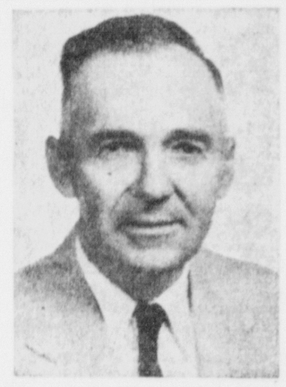

U. S. Dist. Judge John L. Miller Wednesday instructed the jury to return a directed verdict of acquittal for the Ligett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Otto Pritchard, 61, claimed he contracted lung cancer from smoking Chesterfields for more than 20 years. His cancerous right lung was removed in 1953. He sought $1,250,000 in damages.

In his instructions to the jury, Judge Miller said that "no substantial evidence has been offered to support a verdict against the defendant on any theory of negligence, and that fair-minded men could not differ as to the conclusions of the fact to be drawn from the evidence."

WILLIAM GOODE

Ex-Commissioner Funeral Monday

Former Pickaway County Commissioner William James Goode Sr., Route 4, died at approximately 11:15 p. m. last night in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, after a lengthy illness.

The prominent Washington Twp. farmer served as County Commissioner two terms. He first was elected in 1948, was re-elected in 1952 and defeated when seeking a third term in 1956.

Mr. Goode entered Mt. Carmel Monday. Previously he had one leg amputated and was recovering at his home when returned to the Columbus hospital.

The 63-year-old Goode was Washington Twp. clerk when first elected Commissioner on the Democratic ticket. He was a World War I veteran.

Briton Doesn't Want To See Baby Again, Gives Him Away

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Dry-eyed and unmoved, Yvonne Moore Wednesday night handed over her unwanted 11-day-old son to the American wife who hopes to adopt him.

"I know you will look after him and love him more than I ever could," she told 38-year-old Gladys Simon of New York, who flew here to collect the baby.

Mrs. Moore, 39, and married 20 years, claims she's too old now to start a family. Her husband, a bus driver, quit his job because of the neighbors' criticism of their desire to get rid of the baby.

British-born Mrs. Simon will stay six months in this country to complete the legal process of adoption.

The baby will be christened Francis after Mrs. Simon's husband.

She was handed the baby in a hotel room shortly after Mrs. Moore had been released from a Brighton maternity hospital.

In handing over the baby, Mrs. Moore said: "He's yours now, Mrs. Simon. I promise you after today you will never see me or my husband again."

Mrs. Moore took a final peek at her son and sighed: "I don't know why it is but I no more feel his mother than any woman in the street.

"I never want to see him again —the farther he goes the better it will be. To me he would just be 24 hours work a day."

Diplomats Hint

the attitude of the Western Allies. Khrushchev said the governments of the United States, Britain and France do not seem to be looking forward to settlement of outstanding cold war issues.

Describing what he presented as events leading up to the plane incident, Khrushchev said an American plane crossed into Soviet territory from the Afghan border April 9 and the Soviet Union took no action.

"Apparently the Americans liked the fact that they made this incursion and were not punished," the Premier said. "On the first of May at 5:36 a.m. an American plane crossed the border into our territory. The order was given to shoot down the invader. This order was fulfilled and the plane was shot down.

"It appeared that the plane was American, although the markings were painted out."

Deputies shouted, "Down with the aggressor!" and "It's direct banditry!"

Khrushchev added that "a strict protest will be made and we will inform them that we have the right to take any measure necessary for the defense of our country."

Khrushchev's attack on the West capped a day which brought announcement of a shakeup in the ruling hierarchy, a promise by Khrushchev to abolish income taxes by the end of 1965 and an announcement which amounted to a revaluation of the ruble effective in October.

Court Handles Seven Cases

Disposition on seven traffic cases was listed today in Circleville Municipal Court.

Motorists cited by the State Highway Patrol were:

Stock Mart Prices Tread Softly Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market treaded cautiously early this afternoon with key stocks mixed and trading moderate. A few volatile issues made gains.

Gains and losses of most pivotal issues were fractional. The more speculative issues rose 1 to 4 points although some declined on profit taking.

After two days of rebound from a test of the 1960 lows the market was behaving according to expectations.

Motors were listless. Steels, coppers and aircrafts declined. Rails, drugs, oils and airlines were generally higher.

Universal Match added more than 4 points in its continued run-up. Haveg gained more than a point. Motorola, Texas Instruments, Thiokol and Raytheon were up about a point each.

Union Carbide and Merck rose more than 2 apiece.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .10 to 211.70 with the industrials off .10, the rails up .70 and the utilities down .20.

Corporate bonds improved. U.S. governments were steady.

WOULDN'T TAKE REFUGE—Two of the non-conformists who wouldn't heed New York's air raid drill are bundled away by the boys in blue. This is at City Hall park, where 26 non-conformists fell afoul of the law. Some 35 persons were arrested throughout city, 500 other demonstrators went free.

Briton Doesn't Want To See Baby Again, Gives Him Away

BRIGHTON, England (AP) — Dry-eyed and unmoved, Yvonne Moore Wednesday night handed over her unwanted 11-day-old son to the American wife who hopes to adopt him.

"I know you will look after him and love him more than I ever could," she told 38-year-old Gladys Simon of New York, who flew here to collect the baby.

Mrs. Moore, 39, and married 20 years, claims she's too old now to start a family. Her husband, a bus driver, quit his job because of the neighbors' criticism of their desire to get rid of the baby.

British-born Mrs. Simon will stay six months in this country to complete the legal process of adoption.

The baby will be christened Francis after Mrs. Simon's husband.

She was handed the baby in a hotel room shortly after Mrs. Moore had been released from a Brighton maternity hospital.

In handing over the baby, Mrs. Moore said: "He's yours now, Mrs. Simon. I promise you after today you will never see me or my husband again."

Mrs. Moore took a final peek at her son and sighed: "I don't know why it is but I no more feel his mother than any woman in the street.

"I never want to see him again —the farther he goes the better it will be. To me he would just be 24 hours work a day."

O-ville Trustees Petition Court

The Circleville Twp. trustees yesterday petitioned the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court to permit them to transfer $5,000 from the general fund to the township road and bridge fund.

The trustees stated that a balance of $9,363.13 is in the general fund and a $2,548.34 is in the road and bridge fund.

The transfer request was made to allow the trustee board to properly perform its duties pertaining to meeting current bills and obligations.

Jury To Hear Non-Support Case

James Vinson, 33, Columbus, was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury this week on an accusation of non-support.

Bond was set at $1,000 in Circleville Municipal Court. Vinson pleaded innocent.

CFD Ambulance Called

Leona Sowards, 117 Fairview Ave., was taken to Berger Hospital yesterday by the Circleville Fire Department emergency ambulance. Firemen said she suffered an attack of choking.

the attitude of the Western Allies. Khrushchev said the governments of the United States, Britain and France do not seem to be looking forward to settlement of outstanding cold war issues.

Describing what he presented as events leading up to the plane incident, Khrushchev said an American plane crossed into Soviet territory from the Afghan border April 9 and the Soviet Union took no action.

"Apparently the Americans liked the fact that they made this incursion and were not punished," the Premier said. "On the first of May at 5:36 a.m. an American plane crossed the border into our territory. The order was given to shoot down the invader. This order was fulfilled and the plane was shot down.

"It appeared that the plane was American, although the markings were painted out."

Deputies shouted, "Down with the aggressor!" and "It's direct banditry!"

Khrushchev added that "a strict protest will be made and we will inform them that we have the right to take any measure necessary for the defense of our country."

Khrushchev's attack on the West capped a day which brought announcement of a shakeup in the ruling hierarchy, a promise by Khrushchev to abolish income taxes by the end of 1965 and an announcement which amounted to a revaluation of the ruble effective in October.

Court Handles Seven Cases

Disposition on seven traffic cases was listed today in Circleville Municipal Court.

Motoris s cited by the State Highway Patrol were:

Gordon Heads City Pumpkin Show Society

Circleville Mayor Ben H. Gordon was re-elected president of the local Pumpkin Show Society recently at the annual election of officers.

James P. Shea was re-elected vice president along with Ned H. Dresbach, secretary, and Robert G. Colville, treasurer.

Two new trustees were appointed. They are Edward Ebert Jr., who was chairman of the 1959 Pumpkin Show Poultry Show, and Mrs. Sterling Poling who assisted Mrs. E. S. Stephens in last year's Fancy Work Department.

Mrs. Poling was named director of Home Arts and Crafts. Director Shea said that plans are definite for the return of the United Army Field Band, Washington D. C., for the 1960 Pumpkin Show.

* * *

The Window Trimming contest was eliminated for this year's Pumpkin Show. Instead, merchants have been asked to permit window displays relative to the County Sesquicentennial celebration, which will be held in conjunction with the Pumpkin Show.

Ned Harden said he would like to have photographs of Pumpkin Shows prior to 1955. Anyone with pictures are asked to phone him at GR 4-3141. Copies will be made of the originals and returned to the owners.

Trustees for 1960 are: Mrs. Guy G. Campbell, Miss Barbara Caskey, Wes Edstrom, Rev. Samuel C. Elsea, Harden, Ebert, Mrs. Willison Leist, Roy C. Marshall, Mrs. Poling, Mrs. Stephens, Clarence Radcliff and Stanley Stevens.

ROBERT Eitel, Jackson junior, was third with 326 points. He lives on Route 3. Sara Wantz, Circleville senior, was third with 308 points. She lives at 229 Watt St.

There were 100 entries in yesterday's competition for high school driver training students. Eighty - two completed the rugged driving course.

Firemen Summoned

Circleville Firemen were summoned to an area in the rear of Moats' Used Car Lot, 125 E. Main St., at 5:20 p. m. yesterday.

Firemen said rubbish was burning. No damage was reported.

Time To Praise 'Good Guy'

Charles H. Brower, president of Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn Inc., addressing the Advertising Federal of America, said "Nuts" to those who contend more and more attention must be centered on the mind and make - up of the "bad guy."

He said "Nuts" to those and to "our national preoccupation with the overwrought and discontented — with the anxiety - ridden student who cannot afford premium gas for his Cadillac — with the neurotic personality, the disturbed psycne and the complex complex."

Instead of putting the accent on "the "well-off, the show-off and the goof-off," national talent hunt, to be followed by the showering of as much attention to Brower would focus on the talented, the able and the devoted. He proposes a great national talent hunt, to be followed by the showering of as much attention to gifted boys and girls as is now given the most sensational criminals.

This is excellent thinking, calling for accenting the positive instead of the negative. It also calls for acceptance by the public of such accent in literature, songs and mass communications.

Are people capable of surrendering the frothy and the petty for the real substance of their future weal — the building of superior humans?

Courtin' Main

Economy Still on Upswing

The national economy already has reached the level that many economists had ventured to predict for 1960. An increase of $16.5 billion in the annual rate of the gross national product in the January - March period, the biggest increase in a decade, put the rate at the $500 billion level.

Few economists are prepared to forecast a final 1960 production rate of more than $10 billion. But the strength of the economy is apparent. The first quarter performance in 1960 had to overcome a lag in housing and a cut in highly optimistic production forecasts by the automobile makers. Despite these and some other unfavorable factors, employment set a record for February — march figures are not in—and the drop in unemployment was greater than the seasonal rate for the month.

Some of the strength the economy has shown in its early-1960 push comes from demands that were bottled up in last year's steel strike. But the economy is attaining heights never before approached in peace or war.

If in the future disruptive work stoppages can be avoided, there are few heights the American economy cannot reach.

You Need Some New Fears?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you tired of your old fears, and looking for something new to be afraid of?

A person's social prestige today often depends upon what he is terrified by. You have to have a fashionable fear or none.

Some time ago I compiled a list of odd fears the possession of which should give anyone added standing in his community. Since then many readers have written asking for still more strange things to be frightened by.

So here are a few additional fears to give you that scared feeling without which today no one seems to feel comfortable:

Does it make you feel blue to be alone? You are a victim of eremiophobia and monophobia.

Do you hesitate to take a fourth martini at a cocktail party because you think someone may be watching? You have scopophobia, the fear of being looked at.

Do you dislike being kissed by your dear old moist-mouthed aunt? That's a sure sign of hygrophobia, or fear of dampness.

Many teen-agers think life unbearable if they get a pimple on their nose. They are afflicated with dysmorphobia, the fear of deformity.

Does your husband hate symphonic music? Does he watch nothing on television except westerns and private eye programs? The poor man deserves sympathy. He's got a bad case of bathophobia, or fear of any kind of depth.

If a goldfish leers at you, does it send you into a panic? You are undoubtedly an ichthyophobe, one who fears fish.

Does the rising cost of living give you the heebie-jeebies? My friend, you have come down with batophobia, or fear of high objects.

Do you get into a tantrum if someone puts soda, instead of branchwater, into your bourbon? You have a clear case of molysmophobia, the fear of contamination.

Beatniks suffer a triple dread. They have chrematophobia (fear of money), hylephobia (fear of materialism) and—if the sight of a bathtub makes them tremble—hydrophobia (fear of water).

Do you worry over the prospect of a long visit by your relatives? This can safely be diagnosed as parasitophobia, the fear of parasites.

Do you dislike the idea of being promoted to a better job. You have both hypengyophobia (fear of responsibility) and ponophobia (fear of work). These are two of the most common fears in civilization.

Many bachelors are fugitives from marriage but don't know why. The answer is simple. Their ailment is pnigerophobia, the fear of smothering — or taphephobia, the fear of being buried alive.

Does the threat of Communism appall you? It's likely you have erythrophobia, the fear of anything red.

But, if you're like most people, the thing you are afraid of most of all is that you'll get what's coming to you. That is good old dikephobia—better known as the fear of justice.

No Dissenters These

By George Sokolsky

The Associated Television, Ltd., of Great Britain some time ago put on two television programs about the United States. One dealt with what is wrong with the United States; the other was a defense of this country. The defense was no better than the attack.

What William Clark, the moderator of the program, seems to have wanted to have discussed was whether this has become a nation of dull, joyless, fat, and self - satisfied robots. He collected a most amazing group of Americans to discuss the subject. Professor Wright Mills of Columbia University answered Clark amply when he said:

"When you ask the question what do you mean by conformity and dissent, you assume that all men tend to be political and that they either conform or that they dissent. Now neither of those situations is really the case for some people at least in the United States today. The situation is a third. Namely, that they don't care either way, that they neither accept nor reject.

"So that the problem of conformity versus dissent I should rephrase and say that it has been displaced in the U.S. scene as well as elsewhere, as a problem of apathy, of political indifference, of just not caring. I suppose this sort of thing is most likely to happen in a society which is doing very well economically, but I don't think that is the only cause of it. In the United States today there is no broad base of dissents. . ."

In a word, we are on the whole a satisfied, contented people who have little to kick about. It is a sound, realistic position, even if it is temporary. The next one to be interviewed was Alex King. I read what he had to say carefully but find nothing worthy of quotation. King apparently does not like advertisements which is his privilege.

Then Alger Hiss was brought on to speak for the United States. Clark's introduction of Hiss is a marvel of understatement and may serve some purpose. This is what William Clark told Great Britain about Alger Hiss:

. . . We put this question to someone now living in obscurity, his State Department career cut short by a famous rial in which he was convicted of perjury. . ."

Hiss spoke emotionally:

". . . I would think certainly one of . . .(the causes) in the past 10 years has been fear; sort of nameless fear, but a fear of the unknown, of unusual, unexpected things, and as a result of that, the thing sort of spread is that there has been a tendency to conform in the professions, in education, and even in cultural matters."

Had Hiss been adequately introduced, his British audience would have understood the cause of his fears. Furthermore, he might have explained that if there is fear in this country, it is due to the rising power of the bureaucracy of which he was one of the architects.

Alger Hiss was followed by ules Feiffer of whom I unfortunately never heard. His tomments I cannot interpret. They are of the new-fangled Beatnik type. For instance, he says this:

". . . Probably because if you pay attention to the issues they're too frightening, because the issue today is whether we can bypass next year or not and it's too horrible to contemplate. It's not just who's going to win this local war, or who's not going to win this local war, it's what's going to be left and nothing is going to be left. Nobody wants to think about that."

It would be very interesting to know what this means and in what manner it explains the United States to Great Britain. There is much more of it and one day I shall return to some of it. Some of the rest of it gives the impression that we are just plain nuts, if these are examples of the great American dissenters.

Clark might have found serious dissenters such as Earl Browder, the former Communist leader; James Wechsler, editor of the "New York Post"; Herblock, the cartoonist of "The Washington Post"; William F. Buckley, Jr., editor of "National Review" and Ward Bond, the actor of "Wagon Train".

There are dissenters on the Right and dissenters on the Left. Sen. Barry Goldwater and Sen. Wayne Morse or Sen. Jacob Javits are dissenters of stature. Whoever picked this gang did not know America, but I shall give you more of this.

Don't Diet on Your Own

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

During the last few years I have written several articles about salt-free or low-sodium diets.

Such diets are often beneficial for persons suffering from kidney or heart disease. They are beneficial, that is, if they are prescribed by a doctor and are conducted under his watchful eye.

No radical diet should be undertaken by anyone without the advice of his personal physician.

Apparently there are some persons who believe that they can lose weight by embarking upon a low-sodium diet. Not only is this a dangerous practice, but it is a disappointing one as well.

Restricting sodium, you see, generally results in the loss of water, but not body tissue. And the lost water may be quickly replaced through increased thirst.

In the case of congestive heart failure, loss of water is advisable in most instances. Water accumulates in the tissues, causing what is popularly referred to as "dropsy".

This excess water causes a tremendous strain on the already weakened heart. Thus, we try to release as much of the water as possible by cutting the sodium intake, since sodium tends to hold water in the body.

Those of you who are not suffering from a heart or kidney disease, and who are not under a doctor's care, whould not undertake any self - diagnosed and self - administered low-sodium diets.

All of us need both sodium and chlorine. These elements are essential for normal health. Every cell in our bodies needs sodium.

Chlorine also is essential. An adequate supply, for example, allows our bodies to produce hydrochloric acid. This is a component of the gastric juice which aids digestion.

Most of you, I'm sure, get adequate amounts of both sodium and chlorine from your meals and from the use of table salt which is, in effect, sodium chloride. Better check and make sure.

Answer: An antitoxin is available that may be given when an injury is sustained to keep gas gangrene from developing.

Heart Attack Blamed For Man's Tragic Death

CLEVELAND (AP) — Coroner Samuel Gerber has ruled that Raymond Dada, 74, a retired cement finisher found in his home here Tuesday, died of a heart attack three or four days ago. Dada's wife, Alice, 76, was bedfast in another room, suffering from malnutrition, and was unaware of her husband's death.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most of the people over 65 would have to pay out a big chunk of their income before they could get any benefits under the Eisenhower administration's medical care program for the aged.

As a program, it's a lot less than ideal, probably because there was a lot of disagreement within the administration on what to propose, if anything.

About 3½ million of the 16 million people over 65 would not be covered at all. They are people with income of at least $2,500 for a single person, $3,800 for a couple. Those with that much income are excluded.

For the rest who might be eligible—and no one would have to join who didn't want to—the federal government and the states would share the medical costs above a certain figure which he himself would have to pay.

For example:

An eligible person who joined up would have to pay a fee of $24 a year, whether or not he got sick. Then, if he did get sick, he'd have to pay the first $250 of his medical bills if single ($400 for a married couple) before he'd get federal-state help.

But, on top of that, he'd have to pay 20 per cent of whatever the cost was above $250.

Since not all states might want to take part in the program, people living in the ones which didn't wouldn't get under the program at all.

Full coverage at no cost would be provided for those 2½ million people who have to depend on public assistance for their living.

So when you eliminate the 3½ million excluded by the size of their income and the 2½ million on public assistance and getting the program benefits for free, you wind up with about 10 million people eligible to choose whether they will participate or will stay out of the program.

Most of them are on the Social Security rolls now. A government survey of such people in 1957 showed the average retired couple had a total income of about $1,140. The average aged widow had a total income of $880.

Let's take the widow with $880 who ran up a medical bill of $400 and see how much she'd have to pay out of her own pocket if she decided to get under the program. This would be it:

First, $24 for the enrollment fee. Then the first $250 of the $400. Then 20 per cent of the difference between $250 and $400, which would be 20 per cent of $150, or $30.

Total cost to her then on a $400 medical bill would be $304. The federal-state payment would be $96.

But that same 1957 study showed the average medical expense for people over 65 was $177.

So, under the Eisenhower program, many people, besides paying the $24 to the state, would have to pay their entire medical bill of $177, since the program wouldn't come into operation for them until their cost was over $250.

The ones who would benefit most under the program would be those who were laid up in a hospital a long time or whose medical bills ran well up above $250.

Views on Television - Radio

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be easy to draw some conclusions from the approaching and premature demise of NBC's expensive, loudly exploited Startime series if the general level of the shows had been higher.

The sponsor, who planned to carry the hour-long Tuesday night series through June has—as NBC puts it—"asked for relief," and the programs now will wind up the end of May.

Of course, if all of the Startime shows had been like "The Turn of the Screw," "The Wicked Scheme of Jebal Deeks," or "My Three Angels," it would be easy to come to some pretty devastating conclusions about the tastes of the viewing public which tuned in in disappointing numbers. Now the sponsor, which budgeted about 15 million dollars for the series, plans the June Startime money on "Overland Trail" and "Laramie," two hour-long Westerns much like all other hour-long Westerns.

Advertising agency men are, it seems, one of the very few minority groups television feels free to satirize. It was done again Wednesday night on CHS, a comedy "Girl in the Gold Bathtub."

The play had a preposterous plot about an ad man who buys a 16th century Italian tub for his soap selling campaign. However, the important advertising executive, repeating such Madison Avenue cliches as "it had old world charm, atmospherewise," has itself become a television cliche.

The play had a good cast, nice Italian atmosphere and no guns or corpses.

Recommended tonight: "H. M. S. Pinafore," NBC, 9:30-10 Eastern Daylight Time— a repeat of Ernie Ford's abbreviated version of the Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera.

FUGITIVES FROM THE FBI

Photos 1955

JAMES VERNON FAIN

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this paper is running descriptive articles on the criminals wanted by the FBI.)

JAMES VERNON FAIN is being sought by the FBI for unlawfully fleeing the State of West Virginia to avoid prosecution for the crime of assault with a dangerous weapon. He allegedly abducted a Negro female from her home at Cassville, W. Va., on April 16, 1958.

Reportedly Fain beat his victim about the head when she refused to go out with him, held her all day in an abandoned barn and then released her.

Pennsylvania State Police pursued Fain when he was fleeing West Virginia in a stolen automobile. During the chase, he abandoned the car on a hill causing it to drift back into the police car. In the resulting collision one of the officers was seriously injured and the wanted man made good his escape.

A Federal warrant issued at Fairmont, W. Va., on April 22, 1958, charged Fain with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for the crime of assault with a dangerous weapon.

The fugitive, also known as James Fain and James Henry Fain, has worked as miner and laborer. Prior to the crime for which he is being sought, Fain has been convicted of drunk driving, automobile larceny, rape and breaking and entering.

Fain reportedly has carried firearms in the past and should be considered armed and dangerous.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 35; Born, Boone County, W. Va.; Height, 5 feet 8 inches; Weight, 140 to 150; Build, medium; Hair, black; Eyes, brown; Complexion, brown. Has a scar in his right eyebrow and two small scars on right side of chin. Face is pimpled.

Cincy Pacifist To Face New Tax Troubles

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, controversial pacifist and Presbyterian minister, is due for more tax trouble next Tuesday.

The minister, however, refused to accept the subpoena at his home today. A deputy from the U. S. Marshal's Office then tapped him on the shoulder with it. That action, it was explained, made the serving official.

McCrackin let the paper fall to the ground after Deputy Robert Sack tapped him on the shoulder with it.

The government seeks to collect $5,078 in back taxes, plus interest, from the minister for 1955 to Oct. 29, 1958.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin says he has refused to pay part or all his tax since 1949 because it helps pay for weapons of war.

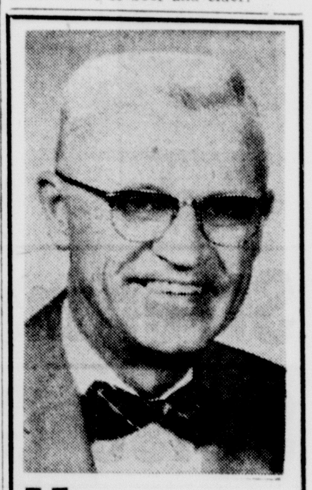

Benjamin Franklin became a vegetarian to save money. He found that vegetarian broth served the same purpose and cost less than a diet of beef and cider.

Time To Praise 'Good Guy'

Charles H. Brower, president of Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn Inc., addressing the Advertising Federal of America, said "Nuts" to those who contend more and more attention must be centered on the mind and make - up of the "bad guy."

He said "Nuts" to those and to "our national preoccupation with the overwrought and discontented — with the anxiety - ridden student who cannot afford premium gas for his Cadillac — with the neurotic personality, the disturbed psyche and the complex complex."

Instead of putting the accent on "the "well-off, the show-off and the goof-off," national talent hunt, to be followed by the showering of as much attention to Brower would focus on the talented, the able and the devoted. He proposes a great national talent hunt, to be followed by the showering of as much attention to gifted boys and girls as is now given the most sensational criminals.

This is excellent thinking, calling for accenting the positive instead of the negative. It also calls for acceptance by the public of such accent in literature, songs and mass communications.

Are people capable of surrendering the frothy and the petty for the real substance of their future weal — the building of superior humans?

Economy Still on Upswing

The national economy already has reached the level that many economists had ventured to predict for 1960. An increase of $16.5 billion in the annual rate of the gross national product in the January - March period, the biggest increase in a decade, put the rate at the $500 billion level.

Few economists are prepared to forecast a final 1960 production rate of more than $10 billion. But the strength of the economy is apparent. The first quarter performance in 1960 had to overcome a lag in housing and a cut in highly optimistic production forecasts by the automobile makers. Despite these and some other unfavorable factors, employment set a record for February — march figures are not in—and the drop in unemployment was greater than the seasonal rate for the month.

Some of the strength the economy has shown in its early-1960 push comes from demands that were bottled up in last year's steel strike. But the economy is attaining heights never before approached in peace or war.

If in the future disruptive work stoppages can be avoided, there are few heights the American economy cannot reach.

You Need Some New Fears?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you tired of your old fears, and looking for something new to be afraid of?

A person's social prestige today often depends upon what he is terrified by. You have to have a fashionable fear or none.

Some time ago I compiled a list of odd fears the possession of which should give anyone added standing in his community. Since then many readers have written asking for still more strange things to be frightened by.

So here are a few additional fears to give you that scared feeling without which today no one seems to feel comfortable:

Does it make you feel blue to be alone? You are a victim of eremiophobia and monophobia.

Do you hesitate to take a fourth martini at a cocktail party because you think someone may be watching? You have scopophobia, the fear of being looked at.

Do you dislike being kissed by your dear old moist-mouthed aunt? That's a sure sign of hygrophobia, or fear of dampness.

Many teen-agers think life unbearable if they get a pimple on their nose. They are afflicted with dysmorphobia, the fear of deformity.

Does your husband hate symphonic music? Does he watch nothing on television except westerns and private eye programs? The poor man deserves sympathy. He's got a bad case of bathophobia, or fear of any kind of depth.

If a goldfish leers at you, does it send you into a panic? You are undoubtedly an ichthyophobe, one who fears fish.

Does the rising cost of living give you the heebie-jeebies? My friend, you have come down with batophobia, or fear of high objects.

Do you get into a tantrum if someone puts soda, instead of branchwater, into your bourbon? You have a clear case of molysmophobia, the fear of contamination.

Beatniks suffer a triple dread. They have chrematophobia (fear of money), hylephobia (fear of materialism) and—if the sight of a bathtub makes them tremble—hydrophobia (fear of water).

Do you worry over the prospect of a long visit by your relatives? This can safely be diagnosed as parasitophobia, the fear of parasites.

Do you dislike the idea of being promoted to a better job. You have both hypengyophobia (fear of responsibility) and ponophobia (fear of work). These are two of the most common fears in civilization.

Many bachelors are fugitives from marriage but don't know why. The answer is simple. Their ailment is pnigerophobia, the fear of smothering — or taphephobia, the fear of being buried alive.

Does the threat of Communism appall you? It's likely you have erythrophobia, the fear of anything red.

But, if you're like most people, the thing you are afraid of most of all is that you'll get what's coming to you. That is good old dikephobia—better known as the fear of justice.

No Dissenters These

By George Sokolsky

The Associated Television, Ltd., of Great Britain some time ago put on two television programs about the United States. One dealt with what is wrong with the United States; the other was a defense of this country. The defense was no better than the attack.

What William Clark, the moderator of the program, seems to have wanted to have discussed was whether this has become a nation of dull, joyless, fat, and self - satisfied robots. He collected a most amazing group of Americans to discuss the subject. Professor Wright Mills of Columbia University answered Clark amply when he said:

"When you ask the question what do you mean by conformity and dissent, you assume that all men tend to be political and that they either conform or that they dissent. Now neither of those situations is really the case for some people at least in the United States today. The situation is a third. Namely, that they don't care either way, that they neither accept nor reject.

"So that the problem of conformity versus dissent I should rephrase and say that it has been displaced in the U.S. scene as well as elsewhere, as a problem of apathy, of political indifference, of just not caring. I suppose this sort of thing is most likely to happen in a society which is doing very well economically, but I don't think that is the only cause of it. In the United States today there is no broad base of dissents. . ."

In a word, we are on the whole a satisfied, contented people who have little to kick about. It is a sound, realistic position, even if it is temporary. The next one to be interviewed was Alex King. I read what he had to say carefully but find nothing worthy of quotation. King apparently does not like advertisements which is his privilege.

Then Alger Hiss was brought on to speak for the United States. Clark's introduction of Hiss is a marvel of understatement and may serve some purpose. This is what William Clark told Great Britain about Alger Hiss:

". . . We put this question to someone now living in obscurity, his State Department career cut short by a famous trial in which he was convicted of perjury. . ."

Hiss spoke emotionally:

". . . I would think certainly one of . . .(the causes) in the past 10 years has been fear; sort of nameless fear, but a fear of the unknown, of unusual, unexpected things, and as a result of that, the thing sort of spread is that there has been a tendency to conform in the professions, in education, and even in cultural matters."

Had Hiss been adequately introduced, his British audience would have understood the cause of his fears. Furthermore, he might have explained that if there is fear in this country, it is due to the rising power of the bureaucracy of which he was one of the architects.

Alger Hiss was followed by ules Feiffer of whom I unfortunately never heard. His tomments I cannot interpret. They are of the new-fangled Beatnik type. For instance, he says this:

". . . Probably because if you pay attention to the issues they're too frightening, because the issue today is whether we can bypass next year or not and it's too horrible to contemplate. It's not just who's going to win this local war, or who's not going to win this local war, it's what's going to be left and nothing is going to be left. Nobody wants to think about that."

It would be very interesting to know what this means and in what manner it explains the United States to Great Britain. There is much more of it and one day I shall return to some of it. Some of the rest of it gives the impression that we are just plain nuts, if these are examples of the great American dissenters.

Clark might have found serious dissenters such as Earl Browder, the former Communist leader; James Wechsler, editor of the "New York Post"; Herblock, the cartoonist of "The Washington Post"; William F. Buckley, Jr., editor of "National Review" and Ward Bond, the actor of "Wagon Train".

There are dissenters on the Right and dissenters on the Left. Sen. Barry Goldwater and Sen. Wayne Morse or Sen. Jacob Javits are dissenters of stature. Whoever picked this gang did not know America, but I shall give you more of this.

Don't Diet on Your Own

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

During the last few years I have written several articles about salt-free or low-sodium diets.

Such diets are often beneficial for persons suffering from kidney or heart disease. They are beneficial, that is, if they are prescribed by a doctor and are conducted under his watchful eye.

No radical diet should be undertaken by anyone without the advice of his personal physician.

Apparently there are some persons who believe that they can lose weight by embarking upon a low-sodium diet. Not only is this a dangerous practice, but it is a disappointing one as well.

Restricting sodium, you see, generally results in the loss of water, but not body tissue. And the lost water may be quickly replaced through increased thirst.

In the case of congestive heart failure, loss of water is advisable in most instances. Water accumulates in the tissues, causing what is popularly referred to as "dropsy".

This excess water causes a tremendous strain on the already weakened heart. Thus, we try to release as much of the water as possible by cutting the sodium intake, since sodium tends to hold water in the body.

Those of you who are not suffering from a heart or kidney disease, and who are not under a doctor's care, whould not undertake any self - diagnosed and self - administered low-sodium diets.

All of us need both sodium and chlorine. These elements are essential for normal health. Every cell in our bodies needs sodium.

Chlorine also is essential. An adequate supply, for example, allows our bodies to produce hydrochloric acid. This is a component of the gastric juice which aids digestion.

Most of you, I'm sure, get adequate amounts of both sodium and chlorine from your meals and from the use of table salt which is, in effect, sodium chloride. Better check and make sure.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most of the people over 65 would have to pay out a big chunk of their income before they could get any benefits under the Eisenhower administration's medical care program for the aged.

As a program, it's a lot less than ideal, probably because there was a lot of disagreement within the administration on what to propose, if anything.

About 3½ million of the 16 million people over 65 would not be covered at all. They are people with income of at least $2,500 for a single person, $3,800 for a couple. Those with that much income are excluded.

For the rest who might be eligible—and no one would have to join who didn't want to—the federal government and the states would share the medical costs above a certain figure which he himself would have to pay.

For example:

An eligible person who joined up would have to pay a fee of $24 a year, whether or not he got sick. Then, if he did get sick, he'd have to pay the first $250 of his medical bills if single ($400 for a married couple) before he'd get federal-state help.

But, on top of that, he'd have to pay 20 per cent of whatever the cost was above $250.

Since not all states might want to take part in the program, people living in the ones which didn't wouldn't get under the program at all.

Full coverage at no cost would be provided for those 2½ million people who have to depend on public assistance for their living.

So when you eliminate the 3¼ million excluded by the size of their income and the 2½ million on public assistance and getting the program benefits for free, you wind up with about 10 million people eligible to choose whether they will participate or will stay out of the program.

Most of them are on the Social Security rolls now. A government survey of such people in 1957 showed the average retired couple had a total income of about $1,140. The average aged widow had a total income of $880.

Let's take the widow with $880 who ran up a medical bill of $400 and see how much she'd have to pay out of her own pocket if she decided to get under the program. This would be it:

First, $24 for the enrollment fee. Then the first $250 of the $400. Then 20 per cent of the difference between $250 and $400, which would be 20 per cent of $150, or $30.

Total cost to her then on a $400 medical bill would be $304. The federal-state payment would be $96.

But that same 1957 study showed the average medical expense for people over 65 was $177.

So, under the Eisenhower program, many people, besides paying the $24 to the state, would have to pay their entire medical bill of $177, since the program wouldn't come into operation for them until their cost was over $250.

The ones who would benefit most under the program would be those who were laid up in a hospital a long time or whose medical bills ran well up above $250.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It would be easy to draw some conclusions from the approaching and premature demise of NBC's expensive, loudly exploited Startime series if the general level of the shows had been higher.

The sponsor, who planned to carry the hour-long Tuesday night series through June has—as NBC puts it—"asked for relief," and the programs now will wind up the end of May.

Of course, if all of the Startime shows had been like "The Turn of the Screw," "The Wicked Scheme of Jebal Deeks," or "My Three Angels," it would be easy to come to some pretty devastating conclusions about the tastes of the viewing public which tuned in in disappointing numbers. Now the sponsor, which budgeted about 15 million dollars for the series, plans the June Startime money on "Overland Trail" and "Laramie," two hour-long Westerns much like all other hour-long Westerns.

Advertising agency men are, it seems, one of the very few minority groups television feels free to satirize. It was done again Wednesday night on CHS, a comedy "Girl in the Gold Bathtub."

The play had a preposterous plot about an ad man who buys a 16th century Italian tub for his soap selling campaign. However, the important advertising executive, repeating such Madison Avenue cliches as "it had old world charm, atmospherewise," has itself become a television cliche.

The play had a good cast, nice Italian atmosphere and no guns or corpses.

Recommended tonight: "H. M. S. Pinafore," NBC, 9:30-10 Eastern Daylight Time— a repeat of Ernie Ford's abbreviated version of the Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera.

Photos 1958

JAMES VERNON FAIN

JAMES VERNON FAIN is being sought by the FBI for unlawfully fleeing the State of West Virginia to avoid prosecution for the crime of assault with a dangerous weapon. He allegedly abducted a Negro female from her home at Cassville, W. Va., on April 16, 1958.

Reportedly Fain beat his victim about the head when she refused to go out with him, held her all day in an abandoned barn and then released her.

Pennsylvania State Police pursued Fain when he was fleeing West Virginia in a stolen automobile. During the chase, he abandoned the car on a hill causing it to drift back into the police car. In the resulting collision one of the officers was seriously injured and the wanted man made good his escape.

A Federal warrant issued at Fairmont, W. Va., on April 22, 1958, charged Fain with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for the crime of assault with a dangerous weapon.

The fugitive, also known as James Fain and James Henry Fain, has worked as miner and laborer. Prior to the crime for which he is being sought, Fain has been convicted of drunk driving, automobile larceny, rape and breaking and entering.

Fain reportedly has carried firearms in the past and should be considered armed and dangerous.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 35; Born, Boone County, W. Va.; Height, 5 feet 8 inches; Weight, 140 to 150; Build, medium; Hair, black; Eyes, brown; Complexion, brown. Has a scar in his right eyebrow and two small scars on right side of chin. Face is pimpled.

Cincy Pacifist To Face New Tax Troubles

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, controversial pacifist and Presbyterian minister, is due for more tax trouble next Tuesday.

The minister, however, refused to accept the subpoena at his home today. A deputy from the U. S. Marshal's Office then tapped him on the shoulder with it. That action, it was explained, made the serving official.

McCrackin let the paper fall to the ground after Deputy Robert Sack tapped him on the shoulder with it.

The government seeks to collect $5,078 in back taxes, plus interest, from the minister for 1955 to Oct. 29, 1958.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin says he has refused to pay part or all his tax since 1949 because it helps pay for weapons of war.

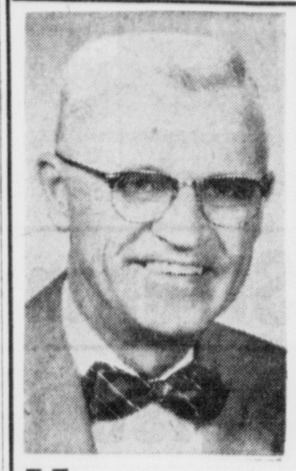

Benjamin Franklin became a vegetarian to save money. He found that vegetarian broth served the same purpose and cost less than a diet of beef and cider.

Man Who Dresses Brigette Bardot Thinks She's Great

By JOSEPH WHITT
Central Press Association Correspondent

PARIS — "I'm the man who dresses Brigitte Bardot," said Jacques Esterel, designer of most of this famous French film star's off - the - screen wardrobe.

I've been a fashion designer for almost 10 years," Esterel said. "Before that I was an engineer. Brigitt was one of my first customers and she's remained faithful to me.

"She was only a teen-age schoolgirl then — that's before the creation of B. B. — but since then she's bought as many as 10 of my gowns at one time.

"I like clients like Brigitte. She isn't easily influenced. Usually she comes in alone, sits down on the floor — I don't know why but she detests chairs — and examines my whole collection.

"As the models parade past, she makes her choices, one after another, with no hesitation. Let me tell you, she doesn't give a hang for what's the latest fashion. And even more interesting, she doesn't care about any man's opinion on her clothing.

* * *

ONLY ONE person must be pleased — herself. That's the way she's always been. Her first husband, Roger Vadim, started her on her career and even he could never make her change her mind.

"What are her tastes in clothes? Very plain fabrics. Like gingham or cotton organdie or denim. She doesn't fancy unusual materials.

"She generally selects dresses with moulded bodices, very small waists, and full skirts. They suit her. She isn't hard to deal with. She has only one peeve — waiting for dresses to be made.

B. B. has been good business for France (she's among the top four dollar - earners) and for Esterel.

"When she puts on a dress it starts something," Esterel said. "She got married in my gown — a pink - and - white gingham affair — and immediately everyone in Paris wanted the same model. And exactly the same cloth.

"Well, I looked all over Paris and there was none to be found. It had all been sold out."

Asked what inspired him in designing clothes for Mademoiselle Bardot, Esterel said, "I delight in variety. Besides being a couturier, I compose popular songs, I sing, and I write plays for television.

"I also delight in youth. These inspire my dress designing. And, May I ask, is there any better symbol of variety and youth than Brigitte?"

How Disabled Must You Be?

New Social Security Booklet Available

In order to receive social security disability benefits, only those are eligible who have a permanent disability — that is, a disability which is so severe that it prevents doing any substantial gainful work.

E. H. Biedenholz, district manager of the Chillicothe Social Security office emphasized, "The disability which the cfaimant has must be a condition which is expected to last indefinitely and one which will not likely improve with time and medical treatment."

Many people think a partial, or temporary, disability is sufficient to enable them to receive disability benefits until they can return to substantial work and substantial earnings again.

In effect, they believe that the social security disability payment is a "stop-gap" income on which they can depend until they are well enough to return to work. Biedenholz stressed that such provisions are not a part of the social security law.

"Rather," he said, "social security benefits are intended to provide some relief from loss of income due to a permanent disability." If the disabling condition will improve with time; or with medical treatment; or if the claimant can work at a job that is less demanding than his usual work, he will not be considered to be disabled under the social security law, and should not count on receiving disability benefits.

Biedenholz added that the local office has a booklet titled, "How Disabled Must You Be?" which sums up briefly the major points of the disability provisions in the law.

He suggested that anyone desiring further information should write or telephone the Chillicothe Social Security Office, located at 32 W. Main St., is open Monday through Friday from 8:45 a. m. to 4:45 p. m.

Adult Scouters Meet Tonight

Pickaway District adult scouters will meet at 7 p. m. today in the Lutheran Church.

The district committee meeting starts at 7 p. m. A Cub training session is slated for 7:30 p. m. The Cub and Scout Roundup is scheduled for 8:15 p. m.

All Scouters are asked to bring their tickets and money for the Scouters' Banquet or turn them into Mrs. Walter Gilmore by Monday.

Sidelights On Election

One of the most interesting and exciting elections in the history of Pickaway County was staged Tuesday.

Two close races were the highlights. They were for Sheriff and County Commissioner. The County Board of Elections placed a totals board in the lobby of the courthouse for the convenience of the public.

Throughout Tuesday evening a crowd jammed the lobby with their eyes glued to the board. As Wednesday morning rolled around, the crowd thinned, but at least 25 persons remained there throughout the early morning hours until the last precinct phoned in its report around 6 a. m.

The Sheriff's race started out as expected with the incumbent, Charles H. Radcliff, soaring ahead. He maintained a 100 or more lead through the first 25 precincts reporting in.

Then the tide changed as the 28, 29 and 30th precincts telephoned resounding margins for the successful challenger, Walton W. Spangler.

* * *

The 37th precinct gave Spangler 70-vote margin and he coasted to one of the most sensational upset victories in many years.

Experts were amazed at the political unknown's win over 30-year Sheriff Radcliff. As the lead altered to Spangler early Wednesday morning, board observers favoring the Washington Twp. dairy farmer cheered.

The Commissioner race also changed considerably during the night. Charles H. Glitt, who ran third, led the ticket at one time and held second place for 35 precincts.

Then late precincts started calling and Melvin swept into second position at the end of 40 precincts and steadily built up a margin over the local grocer.

Scioto's south precinct was the last to phone in and gave Melvin a huge vote, since it is the Route 2, Ashville resident's home township.

Melvin, defeated in his last attempt for Commissioner in the 1956 primary, nearly led the Commissioner ticket. Clyde E. Michel, incumbent running for his second term, led the ticket throughout the night as edged out Melvin at the end of the counting, 1,905-1,828.

Election Board officials and workers really had a workout Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. Ted Corcoran, board chairman, finally left for hime around 10:30 a. m. yesterday, after being on duty from 6:30 a. m. Tuesday, time of the polls' opening here.

Other board members on duty were George A. Fissell, Virgil May and Ned Dresbach, who worked until 10 a. m. yesterday.

Official counters were A. W. "Bill" Goeller and Dr. G. D. Phillips, who was initiated as a counter in Tuesday's primary. This election's unofficial counting was one of the longest on record.

* * *

MANNING THE courthouse lobby board was Henry T. McCrady, County Engineer. Runner from the election board to the board was William Hoffman, Wayne Twp. trustee.

New Blue Shield Plan Ready For Older Buckeye Citizens

A new Blue Shield plan offering surgical and medical cost protection, designed exclusively for Ohio residents age 65 and over, will shortly become available it has been announced by Charles H. Coghlan, executive vice - president of Ohio Medical Indemnity, Inc., Columbus, Ohio.

This new 65-and-Over Plan will help pay for the costs of surgery, in - hospital medical care, anesthesia and radiotherapy, according to a schedule of indemnities set forth in the contract. These benefits, Coghlan said, are the same as those offered to groups through payroll deduction plans.

Enrollment in the plan will start May 16 and continue through midnight, May 29. Ohio residents who are now age 65 or older, or who will be 65 by May 29, are eligible.

Enrollment may be made only by mail and application blanks will appear in advertisements in this newspaper during the 15 - day enrollment period.

Coverage to participants will become effective on July 1, 1960. Cost of the plan to each individual will be only $1.45 per month or $17.40 per year.

* * *

ACTIVELY recommended by The Ohio State Medical Assn., the physicians' professional organization, this Blue Shield Plan does not require the applicant to take a physical examination or make a health statement.

There are no exclusions because of any present or past health problems, and there are no waiting periods for pre - existing conditions. In addition, the individual does not need to be employed.

This new Blue Shield Plan, Coghlan stated, is planned to make available surgical and medical cost benefits to approximately 900,000 of the state's elder citizens who are now in the 65 or over age group.

Man Who Dresses Brigette Bardot Thinks She's Great

By JOSEPH WHITT
Central Press Association
Correspondent

PARIS — "I'm the man who dresses Brigitte Bardot," said Jacques Esterel, designer of most of this famous French film star's off - the - screen wardrobe.

I've been a fashion designer for almost 10 years," Esterel said. "Before that I was an engineer. Brigitt was one of my first customers and she's remained faithful to me.

"She was only a teen-age schoolgirl then — that's before the creation of B. B. — but since then she's bought as many as 10 of my gowns at one time.

"I like clients like Brigitte. She isn't easily influenced. Usually she comes in alone, sits down on the floor — I don't know why but she detests chairs — and examines my whole collection.

"As the models parade past, she makes her choices, one after another, with no hesitation. Let me tell you, she doesn't give a hang for what's the latest fashion. And even more interesting, she doesn't care about any man's opinion on her clothing.

* * *

ONLY ONE person must be pleased — herself. That's the way she's always been. Her first husband, Roger Vadim, started her on her career and even he could never make her change her mind.

"What are her tastes in clothes? Very plain fabrics. Like gingham or cotton organdie or denim. She doesn't fancy unusual materials.

"She generally selects dresses with moulded bodices, very small waists, and full skirts. They suit her. She isn't hard to deal with. She has only one peeve — waiting for dresses to be made.

B. B. has been good business for France (she's among the top four dollar - earners) and for Esterel.

"When she puts on a dress it starts something," Esterel said. "She got married in my gown — a pink - and - white gingham affair — and immediately everyone in Paris wanted the same model. And exactly the same cloth.

"Well, I looked all over Paris and there was none to be found. It had all been sold out."

Asked what inspired him in designing clothes for Mademoiselle Bardot, Esterel said, "I delight in variety. Besides being a couturier, I compose popular songs, I sing, and I write plays for television.

"I also delight in youth. These inspire my dress designing. And, May I ask, is there any better symbol of variety and youth than Brigitte?"

How Disabled Must You Be?

New Social Security Booklet Available

In order to receive social security disability benefits, only those are eligible who have a permanent disability — that is, a disability which is so severe that it prevents doing any substantial gainful work.

E. H. Biedenholz, district manager of the Chillicothe Social Security office emphasized, "The disability which the claimant has must be a condition which is expected to last indefinitely and one which will not likely improve with time and medical treatment."

Many people think a partial, or temporary, disability is sufficient to enable them to receive disability benefits until they can return to substantial work and substantial earnings again.

In effect, they believe that the social security disability payment is a "stop-gap" income on which they can depend until they are well enough to return to work. Biedenholz stressed that such provisions are not a part of the social security law.

"Rather," he said, "social security benefits are intended to provide some relief from loss of income due to a permanent disability." If the disabling condition will improve with time; or with medical treatment; or if the claimant can work at a job that is less demanding than his usual work, he will not be considered to be disabled under the social security law, and should not count on receiving disability benefits.

Biedenholz added that the local office has a booklet titled, "How Disabled Must You Be?" which sums up briefly the major points of the disability provisions in the law.

He suggested that anyone desiring further information should write or telephone the Chillicothe Social Security Office, located at 32 W. Main St., is open Monday through Friday from 8:45 a. m. to 4:45 p. m.

Sidelights On Election

One of the most interesting and exciting elections in the history of Pickaway County was staged Tuesday.

Two close races were the highlights. They were for Sheriff and County Commissioner. The County Board of Elections placed a totals board in the lobby of the courthouse for the convenience of the public.

Throughout Tuesday evening a crowd jammed the lobby with their eyes glued to the board. As Wednesday morning rolled around, the crowd thinned, but at least 25 persons remained there throughout the early morning hours until the last precinct phoned in its report around 6 a. m.

The Sheriff's race started out as expected with the incumbent, Charles H. Radcliff, soaring ahead. He maintained a 100 or more lead through the first 25 precincts reporting in.

Then the tide changed as the 28, 29 and 30th precincts telephoned resounding margins for the successful challenger, Walton W. Spangler.

* * *

The 37th precinct gave Spangler 70-vote margin and he coasted to one of the most sensational upset victories in many years.

Experts were amazed at the political unknown's win over 30-year Sheriff Radcliff. As the lead altered to Spangler early Wednesday morning, board observers favoring the Washington Twp. dairy farmer cheered.

The Commissioner race also changed considerably during the night. Charles H. Glitt, who ran third, led the ticket at one time and held second place for 35 precincts.

Then late precincts started calling and Melvin swept into second position at the end of 40 precincts and steadily built up a margin over the local grocer.

Scioto's south precinct was the last to phone in and gave Melvin a huge vote, since it is the Route 2, Ashville resident's home township.

Melvin, defeated in his last attempt for Commissioner in the 1956 primary, nearly led the Commissioner ticket. Clyde E. Michel, incumbent running for his second term, led the ticket throughout the night as edged out Melvin at the end of the counting, 1,905-1,828.

Election Board officials and workers really had a workout Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. Ted Corcoran, board chairman, finally left for hime around 10:30 a. m. yesterday, after being on duty from 6:30 a. m. Tuesday, time of the polls' opening here.

Other board members on duty were George A. Fissell, Virgil May and Ned Dresbach, who worked until 10 a. m. yesterday.

Official counters were A. W. "Bill" Goeller and Dr. G. D. Phillips, who was initiated as a counter in Tuesday's primary. This election's unofficial counting was one of the longest on record.

* * *

MANNING THE courthouse lobby board was Henry T. McCrady, County Engineer. Runner from the election board to the board was William Hoffman, Wayne Twp. trustee.

Boy Falls, Cuts Head

New Blue Shield Plan Ready For Older Buckeye Citizens

A new Blue Shield plan offering surgical and medical cost protection, designed exclusively for Ohio residents age 65 and over, will shortly become available it has been announced by Charles H. Coghlan, executive vice - president of Ohio Medical Indemnity, Inc., Columbus, Ohio.

This new 65-and-Over Plan will help pay for the costs of surgery, in - hospital medical care, anesthesia and radiotherapy, according to a schedule of indemnities set forth in the contract. These benefits, Coghlan said, are the same as those offered to groups through payroll deduction plans.

Enrollment in the plan will start May 16 and continue through midnight, May 29. Ohio residents who are now age 65 or older, or who will be 65 by May 29, are eligible.

Enrollment may be made only by mail and application blanks will appear in advertisements in this newspaper during the 15 - day enrollment period.

Coverage to participants will become effective on July 1, 1960. Cost of the plan to each individual will be only $1.45 per month, or $17.40 per year.

* * *

ACTIVELY recommended by The Ohio State Medical Assn., the physicians' professional organization, this Blue Shield Plan does not require the applicant to take a physical examination or make a health statement.

There are no exclusions because of any present or past health problems, and there are no waiting periods for pre - existing conditions. In addition, the individual does not need to be employed.

This new Blue Shield Plan, Coghlan stated, is planned to make available surgical and medical cost benefits to approximately 900,000 of the state's elder citizens who are now in the 65 or over age group.

Topic of Garden Club Is Flower Arrangements

Mrs. Alolph Mueller of Pittsburgh gave some interesting advice to flower arrangers anxious to keep up with the trends, when she addressed to 150 garden club members of the Columbus Regional Council, Garden Club of Ohio Inc., at 12:30 p. m., Wednesday at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts.

Mrs. Mueller said that flower arrangement like all living arts was constantly changing. Enumerating some of the fecent trends she said arrangements were getting taller all the time. The tendency to increase the height of an arrangement is still manifest.

"There is a trend to 'play down' color", Mrs. Mueller said. In most of the arrangements she made during her talk she demonstrated this trend in color restraint.

Mrs. Mueller spoke of the increasing demand for depth in flower arrangements. She said depth should never have been disregarded in the first place. But the fact remains that for several years arrangements were flat.

Another trend is to de-emphasize the focal area. Formerly round or target flowers were used to focus attention on a certain area. Now one sees spiked material used more and more at the focal point.

The interest in driftwood appeared to be undimmed, according to Mrs. Mueller. "Driftwood", she said, "Will be here for a long time".

Mrs. Mueller reported that mobiles had invaded the International Flower Show in New York. She said mobiles posed a problem for the staging committee of the flower shows. They were difficult to display and predicted that abstracts would be seen at the more progressive flower shows of the future. She warned her listeners not to laugh at abstracts. They will be funny to you only because you do not understand them.

During the morning session Mrs. L. L. Clark of Bell Fleur Club, presided at the meeting of the Columbus Council. At this time Mrs. Oscar Root of the Pickaway Garden Club and Mrs. Al Deckard of the Roundtown Garden Club were chosen to serve on the nominating committee. Mrs. John Butler, Gahanna, is chairman of the committee.

The annual picnic will be held June 14 at Rising Park, Lancaster. The nominating committee will announce the slate of officers at the picnic.

Arrangements for the luncheon tables were provided by members of the Shawnee Arrangers Club. Tables were centered with miniature branches in which were tiny bird nests and birds of different colors.

Mrs. Carl Calvert, regional vice-president of the Columbus district presided during the luncheon. Honor guests at the speakers table included Mrs. Ralph Shoemake of Dayton, state president of Garden Club of Ohio Inc. and Mrs. Homer Jacobs, regional vice president of the Dayton area. Mrs. James Otto, state awards chairman, was also seated at the speakers table with council officers.

Twenty - one Pickaway Garden Club members attended the spring meeting, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Moffitt, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Eagleson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Teegarden, Mrs. Heiskell, Mrs. Dunkle, Mrs. Mast, Mrs. Bower, Mrs. Huston, Mrs. Eshelman, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Pontious, Mrs. Heckert, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Crozen, Mrs. Defenbaugh Mrs. Measamer and Mrs. Root.

Lewis Davis Feted On 75th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. James Humphry and family, E. Franklin St., honored her father 75th birthday Sunday with a birthday dinner.

Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rutherford, Circleville and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Columbus.

Bible Class Holds Banquet

Westminster Bible Class held its Mother Daughter Banquet in the social room of the church with 40 members and guests present.

The entire room was transformed into an old fashioned garden using large baskets of lilacs and tulips with a back ground of foliage for the effect.

The table was decorated in keeping with the old fashioned garden and the sesquicentennial celebration was centered with a burning coal oil lamp flanked on either end with miniature spinning wheels, a garden path with flower beds of lilacs and tulips.

Among the flowers on the garden path were small dolls dressed as coloniel ladies.

At each place setting was a miniature candle holder made of gum drops and life savors.

The napkins were stenciled black with an old fashioned shay drawn by two horses also bearing the writing Mother and Daughter.

Mrs. W. L. Mack greeted the class and guests with a poem pertaining to Mother's Day.

The program consisted of a talk by Miss Jane Magruder of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., her topic being "Mad Hatter".

Mrs. Florence Baker gave the Mother's Day devotional followed by a group of solos by Miss Patricia Walson.

Mrs. Donald Mitchell brought greetings to the Mother's and the response was given by her daughter, Miss Carol Mitchull.

Gleaners Class Meets

Gleaners Class of the Pontious EUB Church will meet at 8 p. m., Monday in the home of Mary and Francis Clark, Darbyville.

All members are urged to bring sales tax stamps.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Too Much of a Good Thing

DEAR ABBY: My husband retired four months ago and he is driving me out of my mind. He sits around all day looking through magazines to find things for me to cook for him. I have lost all my women friends because he insists on going everywhere with me. Even to the beauty parlor. You know, no matter how much you love a husband there are times when you'd like to get away from him, but he wants me at his beck and call every minute. If I get out of sight he comes looking for me. Please tell me what to do about this situation before I have a nervous breakdown.

GOING TO PIECES

DEAR GOING: Find SOMETHING to keep your husband occupied. Try to interest him in a hobby, Gardening, or stamp, or coins, or model trains, or crossword puzzles or some kind of volunteer work, (church or youth groups). Men his age have even taken up painting (don't laugh) and there are adult education classes if he's so minded, and manual training classes if he's not. Get going before he dies on the vine and takes you with him.

DEAR ABBY: My brother (let's call him John) has been running around with a woman whom I shall call Sally. John is married to a peach of a girl. They have three children.

I am not the type of person who butts into other people's business but I can see my brother's home being broken up and I can't stand it.

If I spoke to John, he would probably tell me to mind my own business, and he would be right. Should I talk to Sally about it? I know her, but not too well. What would you do?

JOHN'S SISTER

DEAR SISTER: Talk to your brother like a Dutch uncle. It permissible to involve yourself in somebody else's business in the interests of saving a family. This is "constructive intervention"—not "butting in". Tell your brother that since you know what's going on, others probably know, too. And that's all, brother!

DEAR ABBY: I was an attractive married woman with two children. My husband traveled a lot and assumed I was behaving myself. He was too trusting. I spent a lot of time at our Country Club. Then I started seeing some of the men from the Club on the q.t. (Some married, some single.) My husband got wind of it and we fought over it. He said I either stayed home or it was quits. So I foolishly divorced him, believing I was so desirable I could do better.

I soon found out that a woman alone is not invited to parties. Also that all divorcees are suspect. And no man is interested in a woman with children unless she has money.

The children miss their father and when they are old enough to realize that I am the one who deprived them of a normal home—how will they feel towards me? Too many innocent children are suffering because of foolish, inconsiderates, selfish mothers like me.

"GUILTY"

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Social Hour Club Dines

The Five Points Methodist Social Hour Club held its meeting Friday in the church basement with a covered dish supper preceding the meeting.

The president, Mrs. Ned Long, opened the meeting with group singing "Work for the Night is Coming". Arthur Dick read the 25 Psalm as the scripture followed by prayer by Laura Long. Roll call was answered by 30 members.

The secretary's report was read by Mrs. Clark Dennis and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Paul Dawson.

The group voted to buy one dozen new Sunday School hymn books and a discussion about flowers for the church yard followed.

Cards of cheer were sent to Mrs. C. D. Hosler and Mrs. Charles Parks.

Richard Redman gave a reading "Burning Heart", Francis Furniss read "The Bread of Life, Elbert Rawlins gave a reading "Christs Decision" and Elbee Jones read "Three Minutes a Day."

The meeting closed with group singing and evening prayer.

Hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Redman, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rawlins and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dick.

Hostesses for the May meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winfough and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Anniversary Dinner Held by Union Guild

The Union Guild had its 27th Anniversary Dinner at the First Methodist Church at 6:30 p. m., April 27.

Mrs. Helen Counts gave a reading on "Do You Remember When"?

Music memory contest and piano solos were played by Mrs. Mary Easter.

Presentation of gifts were given to two honorary members, Mrs. Mary Wardell and Miss Addie Hill.

Officers Named Monday At Monrovian Garden Club

Mrs. Everett Grabill, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers of the Monrovian Garden Club, Monday.

Officers are president, Mrs. Shirley Anderson; vice president, Mrs. Harry Dick; secretary, Mrs. Herman Porter, and treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Grabill.

The president, Mrs. Shirley Anderson conducted the meeting and heard the various reports.

Mrs. Ray Harden Jr., lead the devotions using as her topic "Spring", followed by the Lords Prayer.

The roll call was answered by 16 members naming their best growing perennials.

Mrs. Herman Porter gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Raymond Grabill the treasurer's report. Mrs. Francis Furniss reported on the cookies that were taken to the Home and Hospital after the last meeting and Mrs. Lloyd Neff gave a splendid report of the spring regional meeting held in Chillicothe last week.

Thank you notes were read from Mrs. Clyde Michel for flowers and from Mary E. Heffner for the cookies taken to the home and hospital.

A contribution was made to the Cancer Fund and the group voted to change the meeting time to 8:30 p. m., during the summer months.

Our annual flower show which is limited to members only will be held at the next meeting, June 6. The theme will be "Our Changing Times". Division 1, artisitc arrangements and corsages.

Section 1, artistic arrangements, Class 1. "In the Beginnigg" an arrangement in a wooden or pottery container typical of one hundred and fifty years ago, Class 2, "Growing With The Years" a vertical arrangement signifying strength, Class 3, "Farmers Daughter" an arrangement suggesting rural America, class 4, "City Girl" and arrangement showing the Japanese influence, Class 5, "Happy Birthday" a mass arrangement in the holiday mood.

There will also be specimens of various roses, lillies delphiniums and iris.

Refreshments were served by Mrs Mrs. Sheets assisted by Mrs. Ernest Sheets and Mrs. Kenneth Gossard.

Hostesses for the next meeting are Mrs. John Huffman, Mrs. John O'Day and Miss Freda Clarridge.

Linda Creager Betrothed to William Martin

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Creager, Stoutsville, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Linda Louise, to William Eugene Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin, Stoutsville.

Mr. Martin is a 1958 graduate and is employed at Lincoln Molded Plastics, Inc., Circleville.

The wedding will be an event of June 12, at 2:30 p. m., in Stoutsville.

Topic of Garden Club Is Flower Arrangements

Mrs. Alolph Mueller of Pittsburgh gave some interesting advice to flower arrangers anxious to keep up with the trends, when she addressed to 150 garden club members of the Columbus Regional Council, Garden Club of Ohio Inc., at 12:30 p. m., Wednesday at the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts.

Mrs. Mueller said that flower arrangement like all living arts was constantly changing. Enumerating some of the fecent trends she said arrangements were getting taller all the time. The tendency to increase the height of an arrangement is still manifest.

"There is a trend to 'play down' color", Mrs. Mueller said. In most of the arrangements she made during her talk she demonstrated this trend in color restraint.

Mrs. Mueller spoke of the increasing demand for depth in flower arrangements. She said depth should never have been disregarded in the first place. But the fact remains that for several years arrangements were flat.

Another trend is to de-emphasize the focal area. Formerly round or target flowers were used to focus attention on a certain area. Now one sees spiked material used more and more at the focal point.

The interest in driftwood appeared to be undimmed, according to Mrs. Mueller. "Driftwood", she said, "Will be here for a long time".

Mrs. Mueller reported that mobiles had invaded the International Flower Show in New York. She said mobiles posed a problem for the staging committee of the flower shows. They were difficult to display and predicted that abstracts would be seen at the more progressive flower shows of the future. She warned her listeners not to laugh at abstracts. They will be funny to you only because you do not understand them.

During the morning session Mrs. L. L. Clark of Bell Fleur Club, presided at the meeting of the Columbus Council. At this time Mrs. Oscar Root of the Pickaway Garden Club and Mrs. Al Deckard of the Rounditown Garden Club were chosen to serve on the nominating committee. Mrs. John Butler, Gahanna, is chairman of the committee.

The annual picnic will be held June 14 at Rising Park, Lancaster. The nominating committee will announce the slate of officers at the picnic.

Arrangements for the luncheon tables were provided by members of the Shawnee Arrangers Club. Tables were centered with miniature branches in which were tiny bird nests and birds of different colors.

Mrs. Carl Calvert, regional vice-president of the Columbus district presided during the luncheon. Honor guests at the speakers table included Mrs. Ralph Shoemake of Dayton, state president of Garden Club of Ohio Inc. and Mrs. Homer Jacobs, regional vice president of the Dayton area. Mrs. James Otto, state awards chairman, was also seated at the speakers table with council officers.

Twenty - one Pickaway Garden Club members attended the spring meeting, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Moffitt, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Eagleson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Teegarden, Mrs. Heiskell, Mrs. Dunkle, Mrs. Mast, Mrs. Bower, Mrs. Huston, Mrs. Eshelman, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Pontious, Mrs. Heckert, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Crozen, Mrs. Defenbaugh Mrs. Measamer and Mrs. Root.

Lewis Davis Feted On 75th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. James Humphry and family, E. Franklin St., honored her father 75th birthday Sunday with a birthday dinner.

Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rutherford, Circleville and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Davis, Columbus.

Bible Class Holds Banquet

Westminster Bible Class held its Mother Daughter Banquet in the social room of the church with 40 members and guests present.

The entire room was transformed into an old fashioned garden using large baskets of lilacs and tulips with a back ground of foliage for the effect.

The table was decorated in keeping with the old fashioned garden and the sesquicentennial celebration was centered with a burning coal oil lamp flanked on either end with miniature spinning wheels, a garden path with flower beds of lilacs and tulips.

Among the flowers on the garden path were small dolls dressed as coloniel ladies.

At each place setting was a miniature candle holder made of gum drops and life savors.

The napkins were stenciled black with an old fashioned shay drawn by two horses also bearing the writing Mother and Daughter.

Mrs. W. L. Mack greeted the class and guests with a poem pertaining to Mother's Day.

The program consisted of a talk by Miss Jane Magruder of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co., her topic being "Mad Hatter".

Mrs. Florence Baker gave the Mother's Day devotional followed by a group of solos by Miss Patricia Walson.

Mrs. Donald Mitchell brought greetings to the Mother's and the response was given by her daughter, Miss Carol Mitchull.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Too Much of a Good Thing

DEAR ABBY: My husband retired four months ago and he is driving me out of my mind. He sits around all day looking through magazines to find things for me to cook for him. I have lost all my women friends because he insists on going everywhere with me. Even to the beauty parlor. You know, no matter how much you love a husband there are times when you'd like to get away from him, but he wants me at his beck and call every minute. If I get out of sight he comes looking for me. Please tell me what to do about this situation before I have a nervous breakdown.

GOING TO PIECES

DEAR GOING: Find SOMETHING to keep your husband occupied. Try to interest him in a hobby. Gardening, or stamp, or coins, or model trains, or crossword puzzles or some kind of volunteer work, (church or youth groups). Men his age have even taken up painting (don't laugh) and there are adult education classes if he's so minded, and manual training classes if he's not. Get going before he dies on the vine and takes you with him.

DEAR ABBY: My brother (let's call him John) has been running around with a woman whom I shall call Sally. John is married to a peach of a girl. They have three children.

I am not the type of person who butts into other people's business but I can see my brother's home being broken up and I can't stand it.

If I spoke to John, he would probably tell me to mind my own business, and he would be right. Should I talk to Sally about it? I know her, but not too well. What would you do?

JOHN'S SISTER

DEAR SISTER: Talk to your brother like a Dutch uncle. It permissible to involve yourself in somebody else's business in the interests of saving a family. This is "constructive intervention"—not "butting in". Tell your brother that since you know what's going on, others probably know, too. And that's all, brother!

DEAR ABBY: I was an attractive married woman with two children. My husband traveled a lot and assumed I was behaving myself. He was too trusting. I spent a lot of time at our Country Club. Then I started seeing some of the men from the Club on the q.t. (Some married, some single.) My husband got wind of it and we fought over it. He said I either stayed home or it was quits. So I foolishly divorced him, believing I was so desirable I could do better.

I soon found out that a woman alone is not invited to parties. Also that all divorcees are suspect. And no man is interested in a woman with children unless she has money.

The children miss their father and when they are old enough to realize that I am the one who deprived them of a normal home—how will they feel towards me? Too many innocent children are suffering because of foolish, inconsiderates, selfish mothers like me.

Social Hour Club Dines

The Five Points Methodist Social Hour Club held its meeting Friday in the church basement with a covered dish supper preceding the meeting.

The president, Mrs. Ned Long, opened the meeting with group singing "Work for the Night is Coming". Arthur Dick read the 25 Psalm as the scripture followed by prayer by Laura Long. Roll call was answered by 30 members.

The secretary's report was read by Mrs. Clark Dennis and the treasurer's report by Mrs. Paul Dawson.

The group voted to buy one dozen new Sunday School hymn books and a discussion about flowers for the church yard followed.

Cards of cheer were sent to Mrs. C. D. Hosler and Mrs. Charles Parks.

Richard Redman gave a reading "Burning Heart", Francis Furniss read "The Bread of Life, Elbert Rawlins gave a reading "Christs Decision" and Elbee Jones read "Three Minutes a Day."

The meeting closed with group singing and evening prayer.

Hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Redman, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Rawlins and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dick.

Hostesses for the May meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winfough and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Anniversary Dinner Held by Union Guild

The Union Guild had its 27th Anniversary Dinner at the First Methodist Church at 6:30 p. m., April 27.

Mrs. Helen Counts gave a reading on "Do You Remember When"?

Music memory contest and piano solos were played by Mrs. Mary Easter.

Presentation of gifts were given to two honorary members, Mrs. Mary Wardell and Miss Addie Hill.

Jackson Twp. Band On PTS Program

The Jackson Twp. PTS will meet Monday in the school auditorium for a special program.

A program will be presented by the Jackson Twp. School Band. All PTS members are urged to attend the session which starts at 8 p. m.

Choked for Words

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — George Norman was arrested in connection with a $55 robbery. En route to the police station officers noted Norman was trying to talk about it, but just couldn't.

Officers took a long look at Norman's swollen cheeks, forced his mouth open and found 12 one dollar bills. The money was seized as evidence.

Turkey now substitutes tea, which it grows on its own soil, for coffee. Reason is that homegrown tea is cheaper than imported coffee.

Young Killer May Escape Electric Chair

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A mercy recommendation in the trial of a confessed multiple slayer may have boosted his chances of dodging Florida's electric chair.

But even if trigger-happy Dennis Whitney goes scot-free in Florida, Arizona and California authorities want him for four other murders he has confessed.

An all-male jury Wednesday convicted the 17-year-old California drifter of first degree murder in the shooting of Virginia Selby. The verdict carried a recommendation of mercy, which means a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment.

Dade County (Miami) has a hold order on Whitney for two filling station holdup slayings. But State Attorney Richard E. Gerstein of Dade County said he would confer with Palm Beach County Prosecutor Phil O'Connell before deciding whether to call the pimply-faced defendant to trial in Miami.

"I feel he has been tried for the most brutal killing of all," Gerstein said. He indicated that if O'Connell thinks Whitney might get a death sentence for his Miami crimes, the youth will be tried for them.

Mrs. Selby, 62, was the last of Whitney's seven victims in a 42-day series of holdups between California and Florida. He confessed that he killed one man in California, three in Arizona and two in Florida.

Many Farmers Are Incorporating

URBANA, Ill. (AP — Many farmers are incorporating, says N. G. P. Krausz, University of Illinois agricultural law professor, because it offers many solutions to farmers' problems.

It offers aid in inheritance problems. It could aid in meeting huge capital needs for increased farm mechanization. A farmer would be liable for debts of the business only to the extent of his investment. The corporation would not be responsible for his debts.

Farm corporation stock may be sold, willed, given away or allowed to go to heirs by laws of descent without breaking up the business. It would require adequate records and tend to promote efficency.

Krausz, however, doubts that incorporation affords tax advantages, except on large acreages that produce substantial income.

NEW LOOK—Beverly Aadland wears still another hair style at the hearing in Los Angeles to determine whether she shall be held as a court ward till her 21st birthday. The 17-year-old playmate of the late Errol Flynn became an inmate of Juvenile hall after William Stanciu was killed as they were struggling over a gun.

Court Action Halts Appeal By Sheppard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Samuel H. Sheppard's long battle against the life sentence he is serving for the murder of his wife has come to a temporary halt because of two Ohio Supreme Court rulings.

The court Wednesday unanimously dismissed a habeas corpus action based on a claim that authorities concealed evidence favorable to the former osteopath at this trial.

Also overruled was a motion for return of a laboratory card assertedly showing that blood on the dead woman's wrist watch was of a type indicating the presence of a third person—the killer—at the death scene.

Counsel for Sheppard indicated an appeal might be made to the U. S. District Court. Sheppard was convicted of second-degree murder in the bludgeon death of his wife, Marilyn, at their home near Cleveland July 4, 1954, and is in Ohio Penitentiary.

In the decision, the court said there was no concealment of the laboratory card, previously in possession of defense attorneys. They said a technician at the trial testified that the blood tests were not conclusive.

Tiffin Farmer Loses Fuss with Government

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A Tiffin farmer lost his bid to regain a $2,404 penalty levied by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for overplanting.

The government contended Chaney signed a wheat acreage agreemnt. Promising to withhold land from production under the Soil Bank Act. Instead, he grew rye and used it to seed other land the following year.

House Panel OKs Postal Pay Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — A nine per cent pay boost for federal workers was approved today by the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee in defiance of administration protests.

The increase would take effect on the first payday of the fiscal year beginning July 1, fattening the paychecks of 1,700,000 employes.

Jackson Twp. Band On PTS Program

The Jackson Twp. PTS will meet Monday in the school auditorium for a special program.

A program will be presented by the Jackson Twp. School Band. All PTS members are urged to attend the session which starts at 8 p. m.

Choked for Words

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — George Norman was arrested in connection with a $55 robbery. En route to the police station officers noted Norman was trying to talk about it, but just couldn't.

Officers took a long look at Norman's swollen cheeks, forced his mouth open and found 12 one dollar bills. The money was seized as evidence.

Turkey now substitutes tea, which it grows on its own soil, for coffee. Reason is that homegrown tea is cheaper than imported coffee.

Young Killer May Escape Electric Chair

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A mercy recommendation in the trial of a confessed multiple slayer may have boosted his chances of dodging Florida's electric chair.

But even if trigger-happy Dennis Whitney goes scot-free in Florida, Arizona and California authorities want him for four other murders he has confessed.

An all-male jury Wednesday convicted the 17-year-old California drifter of first degree murder in the shooting of Virginia Selby. The verdict carried a recommendation of mercy, which means a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment.

Dade County (Miami) has a hold order on Whitney for two filling station holdup slayings. But State Attorney Richard E. Gerstein of Dade County said he would confer with Palm Beach County Prosecutor Phil O'Connell before deciding whether to call the pimply-faced defendant to trial in Miami.

"I feel he has been tried for the most brutal killing of all," Gerstein said. He indicated that if O'Connell thinks Whitney might get a death sentence for his Miami crimes, the youth will be tried for them.

Mrs. Selby, 62, was the last of Whitney's seven victims in a 42-day series of holdups between California and Florida. He confessed that he killed one man in California, three in Arizona and two in Florida.

Many Farmers Are Incorporating

URBANA, Ill. (AP — Many farmers are incorporating, says N. G. P. Krausz, University of Illinois agricultural law professor, because it offers many solutions to farmers' problems.

It offers aid in inheritance problems. It could aid in meeting huge capital needs for increased farm mechanization. A farmer would be liable for debts of the business only to the extent of his investment. The corporation would not be responsible for his debts.

Farm corporation stock may be sold, willed, given away or allowed to go to heirs by laws of descent without breaking up the business. It would require adequate records and tend to promote efficency.

Krausz, however, doubts that incorporation affords tax advantages, except on large acreages that produce substantial income.

NEW LOOK—Beverly Aadland wears still another hair style at the hearing in Los Angeles to determine whether she shall be held as a court ward till her 21st birthday. The 17-year-old playmate of the late Errol Flynn became an inmate of Juvenile hall after William Stanciu was killed as they were struggling over a gun.

Court Action Halts Appeal By Sheppard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Samuel H. Sheppard's long battle against the life sentence he is serving for the murder of his wife has come to a temporary halt because of two Ohio Supreme Court rulings.

The court Wednesday unanimously dismissed a habeas corpus action based on a claim that authorities concealed evidence favorable to the former osteopath at this trial.

Also overruled was a motion for return of a laboratory card assertedly showing that blood on the dead woman's wrist watch was of a type indicating the presence of a third person—the killer—at the death scene.

Counsel for Sheppard indicated an appeal might be made to the U. S. District Court. Sheppard was convicted of second-degree murder in the bludgeon death of his wife, Marilyn, at their home near Cleveland July 4, 1954, and is in Ohio Penitentiary.

In the decision, the court said there was no concealment of the laboratory card, previously in possession of defense attorneys. They said a technician at the trial testified that the blood tests were not conclusive.

Tiffin Farmer Loses Fuss with Government

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A Tiffin farmer lost his bid to regain a $2,404 penalty levied by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for overplanting.

The government contended Chaney signed a wheat acreage agreemnt. Promising to withhold land from production under the Soil Bank Act. Instead, he grew rye and used it to seed other land the following year.

House Panel OKs Postal Pay Hike

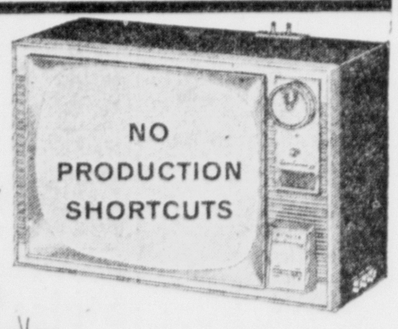

WASHINGTON (AP) — A nine per cent pay boost for federal workers was approved today by the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee in defiance of administration protests.

The increase would take effect on the first payday of the fiscal year beginning July 1, fattening the paychecks of 1,700,000 employes.

Corporations See Slowdown In Profit Gain

Total Net Runs Below Last Year's High In Second Quarter

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Two out of three American corporations managed to make more money in the first three months of this year than in the first quarter of 1959.

But a slowdown in the year to year gain—5.5 per cent this time—was noticeable. A year ago they were doing 54 per cent better than in depressed 1958.

Total profits were well below last year's high in the second quarter. And many companies may be doing well to break even in the current quarter with last year's figures.

Dividends are following much the same pattern. Cash payments in this year's first quarter were reported 7 per cent ahead of a year ago by the Department of Commerce but a slowdown in the advance was indicated in April in figures by Standard & Poor's Corp.

The statistical firm reports that for the first time since November 1958 the number of dividend increases failed to rise. This April, 38 companies raised their dividends, compared with 106 in March and 70 in April 1959.

Caution over the slower rate of profit improvements is believed by the firm to have caused the go-slow attitude of many corporate boards.

The earning figures for the first quarter also show a decline in profit margins from a year ago. While many companies show sales ahead of last year, the ratio of profits to sales slipped. Reasons given include higher operating costs and increased competition here and abroad.

The U.S. Treasury also is watching the profit prospects this year closely, since much of the hope for a Treasury surplus depends upon a substantial increase in corporate earnings this year to provide larger income tax collections.

Of 652 corporate earnings tabulated for the first quarter of this year, 418 companies reported increases over the previous year. This time there were 45 of them oprating at a loss, compared with 34 in the red in the 1959 period.

Groups declining this year included aircrafts, containers, rail equipment, mining and metalworking, rubber and railroads. The airlines as a group showed a net loss this year, compared with a modest profit a year ago.

On the usside—often helped by comparsons with bad performances in 1959—were farm equipment, textiles, machinery and tools, and communications, in particular.

The steel industry as a whole pulled ahead of last year by 9 per cent, although its second quarter prospects are far less bright. The motors industry staged a 7 per cent advance, with second quarter performances also in some doubt.

An automatic tseting machine used by a U. S. missile conponent manufacturer can run a complete test on a complicated assembly in just one hour compared with 32 hours required to check the assembly by manual methods.

Dividends are following much the same pattern. Cash payments in this year's first quarter were reported 7 per cent ahead of a year ago by the Department of Commerce but a slowdown in the advance was indicated in April in figures by Standard & Poor's Corp.

The statistical firm reports that for the first time since November 1958 the number of dividend increases failed to rise. This April, 38 companies raised their dividends, compared with 106 in March and 70 in April 1959.

Caution over the slower rate of profit improvements is believed by the firm to have caused the go-slow attitude of many corporate boards.

The earning figures for the first quarter also show a decline in profit margins from a year ago. While many companies show sales ahead of last year, the ratio of profits to sales slipped. Reasons given include higher operating costs and increased competition here and abroad.

The U.S. Treasury also is watching the profit prospects this year closely, since much of the hope for a Treasury surplus depends upon a substantial increase in corporate earnings this year to provide larger income tax collections.

Of 652 corporate earnings tabulated for the first quarter of this year, 418 companies reported increases over the previous year. This time there were 45 of them oprating at a loss, compared with 34 in the red in the 1959 period.

Groups declining this year included aircrafts, containers, rail equipment, mining and metalworking, rubber and railroads. The airlines as a group showed a net loss this year, compared with a modest profit a year ago.

On the usside—often helped by comparsons with bad performances in 1959—were farm equipment, textiles, machinery and tools, and communications, in particular.

The steel industry as a whole pulled ahead of last year by 9 per cent, although its second quarter prospects are far less bright. The motors industry staged a 7 per cent advance, with second quarter performances also in some doubt.

An automatic tseting machine used by a U. S. missile conponent manufacturer can run a complete test on a complicated assembly in just one hour compared with 32 hours required to check the assembly by manual methods.

Colorful Los Angeles Chief To Quit Office

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Norris Poulson, 64, whose two terms as mayor of this sprawling metropolis are best known for Khrushchev and baseball, won't run for re-election.

"I am grateful that I have my health and I want to keep it," said Poulson in making the announcement Tuesday night.

Beyond the burgeoning limits of Los Angeles, Poulson is perhaps best known for two things: He told off Krushchev to his face and he played a major role in bringing major league baseball west.

Poulson's after-dinner speaking almost gave the Soviet Union's visiting Khrushchev a severe case of indigestion last fall. Khrushchev took exception to Poulson's reference to the Soviet leader's celebrated "We shall bury you" quote. Khrushchev, his pleasant peasant face redder than the Kremlin flag, threatened to pack up and go home. But he calmed down after a bitter anti-Poulson tirade.

Later, the Soviet leader said the mayor "does not shine by his intelligence."

Poulson said in rebuttal that "there is no statement of principle (in his remarks to Khrushchev) with which any good American citizen can find fault."

Poulson spearheaded a civic group that made a safari to Florida and lured Walter O'Malley and his then Brooklyn Dodgers to the money-green fields of Memorial Coliseum.

Poulson said he plans to live in Los Angeles after his term expires in a June 1961. The former Republican congressman said he'll go back to his first love—the life of a certified public accountant.

Prelude to Royal Wedding

Princess To Start Life Friday of Strange Mixture

LONDON (AP)—Friday a new life starts for Princess Margaret, matron.

And a fascinating young married life it certainly should be—a mixture of the royal rigidity she has known since childhood and the gay bohemianism in which Tony Armstrong-Jones feels most at at home.

Despite her occasional taste for a fling, Margaret always has loved the pomp and position of royalty. Someone once asked if she did not find the royal round wearisome.

Back snapped the answer: "I can think of nothing more wonderful than being what I am."

Close friends, for this reason, discount suggestions that the princess is tired of life in the headlines, that she wants to withdraw to a quiet country love nest.

The princess will be 30 in August. Like any other couple marrying late, Margaret and Tony will hope to start a family as soon as possible.

The Queen has given them an apartment in Kensington Palace with only three usable bedrooms. It is not enough for raising a family in even half-royal style.

Small though their first home will be, Margaret will not be expected to give a hand with the dusting. The attic and basement have plenty of room for servants.

Nor will Margaret kiss husband goodby on the doorstep each morning as other wives do. For one thing, Tony gave up work as a photographer in favor of marriage. For another, Margaret likes breakfast in bed—and late.

As for cooking, it's a safe bet that Tony—not Margaret—will be the one to whip up those cozy late-night snacks when the staff have gone to bed. Margaret has never been known as the domesticated type. But Tony, after long years in bachelor snuggeries, is a hand with sauce and skillet.

As soon as she marries, Margaret's annual allowance from the taxpayer jumps from 6,000 pounds ($16,800) to 15,000 pounds ($42,000) a year. Taxes will take about a third. That leaves not much for regal living.

Tony could take a job, though the field is limited. Photography apparently is out. The royal family could not see him in any form of commerce. Probably he will follow the example of Margaret's cousin, the Earl of Harewood, who is the salaried director of the Edinburgh International Festival.

All the odds, however, suggest that neither Margaret nor her husband will ever be short of spending money. Margaret received hefty tax-free legacies from old Queen Mary, who doted on her, and from her father, King George VI.

So by any standards — beauty, intelligence, position or wealth—Margaret makes a wonderful bride. And her future looks as rosy as any bride could wish.

Governor Makes 3 Appointments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has reappointed Ralph W. Peters of Defiance to the Anthony Wayne Parkway Board for a term ending May 1, 1966.

Robert Stern of Cincinnati received appointment to the Blind Commission for a term ending July 7, 1962. He succedeed Charles Laiblin of Canton, who resigned.

The governor named Raymond E. Dix of Wooster as a member of the recommending committee for selective service uncompensated personnel in Wayne County. He serves at the pleasure of the governor.

'GLAD IT'S OVER'—Mrs. Ruth Shaw, mother of one of Caryl Chessman's victims, says in Los Angeles, "I'm glad it's over if it had to be that way. My only wish has been that God's will be done." Her daughter Mary was a teenager when she was attacked in 1948, and has been in a mental institution since.

Wanted Ohio Thief Gives Up in Indiana

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Deputy Sheriff H. D. McCann had no trouble in catching a man wanted by Fairfield County, Ohio, officials in a $1,000 theft. In fact, the man came to the sheriff.

McCann said Christopher N. Faso, 38, sought for the theft from Zane's Grill near Lancaster, Ohio, came up to him Tuesday saying "I wanna talk to you." McCann said Faso apparently was drunk.

"What you gonna do with me?" asked Faso.

"I'm going to take you to the Wayne Safety Building because you're drunk," said McCann.

"That's not all that's wrong with me," Faso said. "I'll tell you because I'm tired of running."

He then admitted the Lancaster theft, McCann said.

Faso agreed to return to Ohio to face the charge.

Hollywood Joint To Be Theater

Why? Inflation, Sennes explained Tuesday.

"An average couple today can't enjoy a night out for less than $30—and how many millionaires are there?" Sennes said. "The only time I show a profit is when I can book big names like Louis Prima, Keely Smith and Red Skelton—and I can't get them year round."

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Wednesday night was another fair, pleasant night over Ohio. Early this morning, skies for the most part were clear, and temperatures were uniform with readings in the 50s.

Toledo had 51, Cleveland 54, Marietta 52, Columbus 54, Cincinnati 60.

Cloudiness will increase over northern Ohio today and showers which were occurring over eastern Illinois this morning are expected to reach Ohio's northwest section by evening. While there will be some cloudiness south today, considerable sunshine also is expected.

On this morning's weather map, a slow-moving cold front extended from upper Michigan southwest across Iowa. As this cold front moves eastward toward Ohio, showers and scattered thunderstorms will spread into the western sections tonight and over the state during Friday.

Warm temperatures will continue over the state through Friday.

Aeschulus (525-456 B.C.), the Greek dramatist who wrote "Agamemnon," was also a soldier in the Parsian Wars at the Battles of Marathon and Salamis.

3 Newark Area School Issues OKd by Voters

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A record number of primary voters turned out to approve a 3-mill operating levy for Newark city schools Tuesday.

Almost 10,000 voters, or 55 per cent of those eligible went to the polls and passed the levy by a margin of 1,300 votes.

Two other school bond issues in the county were passed. The Licking Valley School District and the Johnstown-Monroe Local School

Wanted Ohio Thief Gives Up in Indiana

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP)—Deputy Sheriff H. D. McCann had no trouble in catching a man wanted by Fairfield County, Ohio, officials in a $1,000 theft. In fact, the man came to the sheriff.

McCann said Christopher N. Faso, 38, sought for the theft from Zane's Grill near Lancaster, Ohio, came up to him Tuesday saying "I wanna talk to you." McCann said Faso apparently was drunk.

"What you gonna do with me?" asked Faso.

"I'm going to take you to the Wayne Safety Building because you're drunk," said McCann.

"That's not all that's wrong with me," Faso said. "I'll tell you because I'm tired of running."

He then admitted the Lancaster theft, McCann said.

Faso agreed to return to Ohio to face the charge.

Hollywood Joint To Be Theater

Why? Inflation, Sennes explained Tuesday.

"An average couple today can't enjoy a night out for less than $30—and how many millionaires are there?" Sennes said. "The only time I show a profit is when I can book big names like Louis Prima, Keely Smith and Red Skelton—and I can't get them year round."

How Weather Looks Today

Wednesday night was another fair, pleasant night over Ohio. Early this morning, skies for the most part were clear, and temperatures were uniform with readings in the 50s.

Toledo had 51, Cleveland 54, Marietta 52, Columbus 54, Cincinnati 60.

Cloudiness will increase over northern Ohio today and showers which were occurring over eastern Illinois this morning are expected to reach Ohio's northwest section by evening. While there will be some cloudiness south today, considerable sunshine also is expected.

On this morning's weather map, a slow-moving cold front extended from upper Michigan southwest across Iowa. As this cold front moves eastward toward Ohio, showers and scattered thunderstorms will spread into the western sections tonight and over the state during Friday.

Warm temperatures will continue over the state through Friday.

Aeschulus (525-456 B.C.), the Greek dramatist who wrote "Agamemnon," was also a soldier in the Parsian Wars at the Battles of Marathon and Salamis.

3 Newark Area School Issues OKd by Voters

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A record number of primary voters turned out to approve a 3-mill operating levy for Newark city schools Tuesday.

Almost 10,000 voters, or 55 per cent of those eligible went to the polls and passed the levy by a margin of 1,300 votes.

Two other school bond issues in the county were passed. The Licking Valley School District and the Johnstown-Monroe Local School one-and-one between DiSalle and Porter. The 21ste lected two DiSalle delegates.

'Single-Shot'

The echoes of the primary voting likely will be heard for some days to come, especially in Mahoning and Cuyahoga counties. There is considerable unhappiness in Mahoning because an estimated 6,000 voters were unable to register their preferences due to blown fuses in about half the county's 825 voting machines.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown planned to visit Youngstown today to investigate the mechanical failure. He told newsmen he could find no remedy in Ohio law for the voters who were deprived of a chance to cast their ballots.

But Mrs. Morris Mendelssohn, wife of a Youngstown attorney, filed an immediate lawsuit seeking to compel the Board of Elections to void Tuesday's elections in the county because of the breakdowns and order a special election.

Brown plans to visit Cleveland Friday to investigate the long-delayed vote tabulation in that county. The Democratic chairman of the Cuyahoga County board, Ben C. Green, charges the delay resulted because board workers did not report for duty until 10 p.m. election night.

But the Republican board members and the Republican clerk assert the huge size of the county ballot was to blame.

Brown, late Wednesday afternoon, was openly despairing of getting results from Cuyahoga County. It was about 4 p.m. before he got results from the first 1,000 Cuyahoga County polling places. Shortly thereafter, he got another 600. It was 5:30 p.m., EST, 23 hours after the polls had closed, when he and two of his top aides left the office and headed to their homes for some sleep.

'WILL RISE AGAIN'—In a farewell (for now?) speech as governor of Louisiana, Earl K. Long broadcasts that "the truth once crushed will rise again." Not only that, but, "Uncle Earl may be back in 1964," said the earthy Long.

Brown Meets Carlisle in November

Chillicothe Municipal Court Judge William B. Brown, Democrat, and Marshall Carlisle, Republican, will meet in the fall general election for 4th District Court of Appeals Judge.

In the GOP race, Carlisle edged Athens attorney, Gordon B. Gray, by a vote of 15,006-14,864. Third participant in this race, Hocking County Common Pleas Judge Harley Meyer, ran last with 9,013 votes.

Carlisle was victorious here with 804 votes to Gray's 572 and Myer's 566. Carlisle can thank Scioto County for his slight margin of victory as he surpassed Gray in this Ohio River county, 3,183-1,656.

Pickaway Bond Sales Decline Through March

Ohio sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds for March reached $25¾ million for a gain of 400,000 over March, 1959.

County Chairman Judge William D. Radcliff reported that increased sales of the Series E Bond in the state reflected the many industrial campaigns now being conducted throughout Ohio. "The Payroll Savings Plan is now made available by some 2,600 Ohio companies. Many thousands of Ohio workers have found that there is no easier way to save than through the Payroll Savings Plan for the purchase of U. S. Savings bonds."

Pike, Adams and Mercer Counties have taken the lead in the State in percentage of sales attained while Mahoning, Franklin, Lucas and Summit have the van amoung industrial counties.

Depressed Area Bill Is OKd, But Veto by Ike Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — House passage moved a 251 million dollar area redevelopment bill back to the Senate today and put it a step closer to an expected veto.

Designed to give an economic lift to urban and rural areas depressed by chronic unemployment and loss of industry, the bill provides for 198 million dollars more than President Eisenhower had proposed. Its total is only slightly less than was provided in a similar bill vetoed by the President as too costly two years ago.

The decisive House vote came after nine hours of argument and maneuvering during which the bill's opponents resorted to various maneuvers to block consideration. Less than three hours of the session was used for actual debate on the bill's merits.

Voting for the measure were 178 Democrats and 23 Republicans. Against it were 69 Democrats and 115 Republicans.

The final vote was far short of the two-thirds necessary to override a veto which GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana hinted broadly would be forthcoming.

One of the bill's principal supporters, Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex), predicted that the Senate would accept the House version rather than run the risk of sending the measure to a conference committee. The Senate has voted for a 389½ million dollar measure.

Should the measure go to conference, it would face another threat from the House Rules Committee which previously had refused to clear it and forced its consideration Wednesday under a seldom-used rule bypassing the committee.

As it cleared the House, the bill provided for 75 million dollars in loans for urban industrial development, 75 million in loans for rural development, 50 million in loans for construction of public facilities, 35 million in grants for public facilities, 4½ million for technical assistance grants, 1½ million for vocational training grants and 10 million in grants to retrain workers for new jobs.

An estimated 32 major industrial areas, more than 100 smaller areas and several hundred rural counties would be eligible for assistance in one form or another.

Arraignment In Wooster Is Delayed

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—Kenneth 'Watts' arraignment on indictments charging first-degree murder and shooting with intent to kill was continued in Common Pleas Court Wednesday after his attorney argued that the 20-year-old defendant's rights had been violated. No new date was set.

Judge Adrian Miller gave the prosecution until next Wednesday to file briefs answering the claim of attorney F. Emerson Logee that Watts should have been given a preliminary hearing on the charges before they were taken to the grand jury.

Watts is charged with slaying Mr. and Mrs. William Fender at their farm home near Doylestown and wounding Mrs. Marilyn Wagner of Rittman, where Watts also lived.

EMS Groups Have Dinner

Following the banquet, Mrs. William Sprague, gave interpretations of the Hawaiian alphabet and hyla dance. Included in the program were records of selections made by original Hawaiian musical instruments and by St. Catharine's Choir of Hawaii.

Mrs. Robert Musser and Mrs. Clark Will are advisors of the Junior and Senior EMS groups, respectively.

ALONZO MITCHELL

ALONZO MITCHELL is being sought by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid confinement for the crime of kidnaping. While serving a 30-year sentence for kidnaping, Mitchell, on June 16, 1948, escaped with a prison crony from a road gang in Haywood County, North Carolina.

The fugitive has been described by prison officials as dangerous, a chronic troublemaker and a very unco-operative prisoner. He has previous convictions for robbery and larceny, highway robbery, kidnaping, petty larceny and desertion from the Armed Forces.

The wanted man has been employed as laborer, waiter, tailor, insulator, painter and cotton bailer. Due to the nature of previous crimes and his record while incarcerated, Mitchell should be considered possibly armed and dangerous.

Ohio Solons Divided On New Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's representatives were mixed in their voting Wednesday as the House passed, 201-184, a bill for redevelopment in depressed areas. All the Ohio Democrats except Thomas Ashley favored the bill. Ashley was not listed as having voted.

On the Republican side, Reps. A. D. Baumhart Jr. and Frances P. Bolton favored the bill. The remainder of the state's GOP members opposed the measure. Rep. William Hess was paired against the bill, an arrangement by which a member not voting may have his position recorded.

Ike Shifts Meeting of Security Aides

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower shifted a session of the National Security Council to a secret place outside of Washington today without advance notice even to the top-level national strategy planners themselves.

The White House said Eisenhower was unaware at the time of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's claim in a speech to the Supreme Soviet in Moscow that the Soviet Union had shot down an American plane last weekend. Word was relayed immediately to Eisenhower and his security advisers.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the NSC meeting "had nothing to do with the Khrushchev speech." He said it was planned some time ago in connection with Operation Alert.

The other members of the council were following, also by helicopter. The White House said they got their first word of the shift by telephone about 7 a.m. A regular weekly session of the group had been scheduled for 9 a.m.

The council, headed by the President, includes Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., and Leo A. Hoegh, director of the Office of Civil and Defense Moblization.

Defeat at Polls Comes On Solon's Birthday

The senator was defeated in his bid for renomination by Senate Clerk Joseph W. Bartunek. The winner is a former Democratic leader in the Senate.

Gibbon wrote in his "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" that, "The winds and the waves are always on the side of the ablest navigators."

one-and-one between DiSalle and Porter. The 21ste lected two DiSalle delegates.

The echoes of the primary voting likely will be heard for some days to come, especially in Mahoning and Cuyahoga counties. There is considerable unhappiness in Mahoning because an estimated 6,000 voters were unable to register their preferences due to blown fuses in about half the county's 825 voting machines.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown planned to visit Youngstown today to investigate the mechanical failure. He told newsmen he could find no remedy in Ohio law for the voters who were deprived of a chance to cast their ballots.

But Mrs. Morris Mendelssohn, wife of a Youngstown attorney, filed an immediate lawsuit seeking to compel the Board of Elections to void Tuesday's elections in the county because of the breakdowns and order a special election.

Brown plans to visit Cleveland Friday to investigate the long-delayed vote tabulation in that county. The Democratic chairman of the Cuyahoga County board, Ben C. Green, charges the delay resulted because board workers did not report for duty until 10 p.m. election night.

But the Republican board members and the Republican clerk assert the huge size of the county ballot was to blame.

Brown, late Wednesday afternoon, was openly despairing of getting results from Cuyahoga County. It was about 4 p.m. before he got results from the first 1,000 Cuyahoga County polling places. Shortly thereafter, he got another 600. It was 5:30 p.m., EST, 23 hours after the polls had closed, when he and two of his top aides left the office and headed to their homes for some sleep.

'WILL RISE AGAIN'—In a farewell (for now?) speech as governor of Louisiana, Earl K. Long broadcasts that "the truth once crushed will rise again." Not only that, but, "Uncle Earl may be back in 1964," said the earthy Long.

Brown Meets Carlisle in November

Chillicothe Municipal Court Judge William B. Brown, Democrat, and Marshall Carlisle, Republican, will meet in the fall general election for 4th District Court of Appeals Judge.

In the GOP race, Carlisle edged Athens attorney, Gordon B. Gray, by a vote of 15,006-14,864. Third participant in this race, Hocking County Common Pleas Judge Harley Meyer, ran last with 9,013 votes.

Pickaway County residents balloted according to the district as Judge Brown received 2,690 votes here to Rais' 492.

Carlisle was victorious here with 804 votes to Gray's 572 and Myer's 566. Carlisle can thank Scioto County for his slight margin of victory as he surpassed Gray in this Ohio River county, 3,183-1,656.

Pickaway Bond Sales Decline Through March

Ohio sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds for March reached $25¾ million for a gain of 400,000 over March, 1959.

County Chairman Judge William D. Radcliff reported that increased sales of the Series E Bond in the state reflected the many industrial campaigns now being conducted throughout Ohio. "The Payroll Savings Plan is now made available by some 2,600 Ohio companies. Many thousands of Ohio workers have found that there is no easier way to save than through the Payroll Savings Plan for the purchase of U. S. Savings bonds."

Pike, Adams and Mercer Counties have taken the lead in the State in percentage of sales attained while Mahoning, Franklin, Lucas and Summit have the van amoung industrial counties.

Depressed Area Bill Is OKd, But Veto by Ike Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — House passage moved a 251 million dollar area redevelopment bill back to the Senate today and put it a step closer to an expected veto.

Its fate could become a major political issue in the presidential campaign.

Designed to give an economic lift to urban and rural areas depressed by chronic unemployment and loss of industry, the bill provides for 198 million dollars more than President Eisenhower had proposed. Its total is only slightly less than was provided in a similar bill vetoed by the President as too costly two years ago.

The decisive House vote came after nine hours of argument and maneuvering during which the bill's opponents resorted to various maneuvers to block consideration. Less than three hours of the session was used for actual debate on the bill's merits.

Voting for the measure were 178 Democrats and 23 Republicans. Against it were 69 Democrats and 115 Republicans.

The final vote was far short of the two-thirds necessary to override a veto which GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana hinted broadly would be forthcoming.

One of the bill's principal supporters, Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex), predicted that the Senate would accept the House version rather than run the risk of sending the measure to a conference committee. The Senate has voted for a 389½ million dollar measure.

Should the measure go to conference, it would face another threat from the House Rules Committee which previously had refused to clear it and forced its consideration Wednesday under a seldom-used rule bypassing the committee.

As it cleared the House, the bill provided for 75 million dollars in loans for urban industrial development, 75 million in loans for rural development, 50 million in loans for construction of public facilities, 35 million in grants for public facilities, 4½ million for technical assistance grants, 1½ million for vocational training grants and 10 million in grants to retrain workers for new jobs.

An estimated 32 major industrial areas, more than 100 smaller areas and several hundred rural counties would be eligible for assistance in one form or another.

Arraignment In Wooster Is Delayed

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP)—Kenneth Watts' arraignment on indictments charging first-degree murder and shooting with intent to kill was continued in Common Pleas Court Wednesday after his attorney argued that the 20-year-old defendant's rights had been violated. No new date was set.

Judge Adrian Miller gave the prosecution until next Wednesday to file briefs answering the claim of attorney F. Emerson Logee that Watts should have been given a preliminary hearing on the charges before they were taken to the grand jury.

Watts is charged with slaying Mr. and Mrs. William Fender at their farm home near Doylestown and wounding Mrs. Marilyn Wagner of Rittman, where Watts also lived.

Mrs. Wagner was wounded on the night of April 15. The Fenders were slain the following night in their home. Police say Watts killed the Fenders to get their automobile.

Watts surrendered to state patrolmen April 20 in southern Ohio, not far from his former home at Wayne, W. Va.

EMS Groups Have Dinner

Officers of both clubs formed the reception line which welcomed the members with the enchantment of an Hawaiian luau.

Following the banquet, Mrs. William Spraque, gave interpretations of the Hawaiian alphabet and hyla dance. Included in the program were records of selections made by original Hawaiian musical instruments and by St. Catharine's Choir of Hawaii.

Mrs. Robert Musser and Mrs. Clark Will are advisors of the Junior and Senior EMS groups, respectively.

ALONZO MITCHELL

ALONZO MITCHELL is being sought by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid confinement for the crime of kidnaping. While serving a 30-year sentence for kidnaping, Mitchell, on June 16, 1948, escaped with a prison crony from a road gang in Haywood County, North Carolina.

The fugitive has been described by prison officials as dangerous, a chronic troublemaker and a very unco-operative prisoner. He has previous convictions for robbery and larceny, highway robbery, kidnaping, petty larceny and desertion from the Armed Forces.

In a Federal warrant issued at Asheville, North Carolina, on Aug. 28, 1958, Mitchell was charged with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement after conviction for kidnaping.

The wanted man has been employed as laborer, waiter, tailor, insulator, painter and cotton bailer. Due to the nature of previous crimes and his record while incarcerated, Mitchell should be considered possibly armed and dangerous.

AP Assigns Reporters at Royal Wedding

LONDON (AP) — Inside Westminster Abbey and along the procession route, The Associated Press will have a team of 20 newsmen and 13 photographers covering the story of the Princess Margaret wedding Friday.

Two Pulitzer Prize winners head the lineup. Eddy Gilmore will report from inside Westminster Abbey for afternoon papers. Relman E. Morin will write the story for morning newspapers.

Another key newsman taking part in the wedding coverage is Hal R. Cooper, who has been in on every major story reporting the drama-packed changes in Britain in the postwar era.

Alvin J. Steinkopf, an AP newsman who has reported events from the start of World War II through Vatican consistories and royal coronations to the sinking of the Flying Enterprise, also will be on the team. Colin Frost, formerlyreporting from Warsaw, will be another in the lineup.

The wedding schedule will include these highlights—all British Summer Time, which is six hours ahead of Eastern Standard Time.

10:55 a.m. — The bridesmaids leave Buckingham Palace by car for Westminster Abbey. Antony Armstrong-Jones and his best man follow in another car.

11:30 a.m.—Twelve silver trumpets sound a fanfare and the marriage service starts.

12 noon, approximately — The Archbishop of Canterbury will pronounce Princess Margaret and Antony Armstrong-Jones man and wife.

Grosse Pointe Tells How Jew Can Get OK

DETROIT (AP)—"If a Jew belongs to gentile clubs, it's a sign he has been accepted" and he might be able to buy a home in the suburban Grosse Pointes, says Paul Maxon, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Brokers Assn.

Maxon testified Tuesday at a Michigan State Corporations and Securities Commission hearing on a point-system used in rating prospective home buyers in the exclusive Pointes.

The hearing was ordered by State Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams who said the point system was "morally corrupt." Maxon testified in its defense. A score of 50 is accepted as a standard passing grade. A Jew would require 85 points. Negroes and Orientals are not rated at all.

Maxon said a perfect score for both Jews and gentiles is 100 points, but added that the points are spread differently for Jews in order to give more emphasis on churches, clubs and business associates.

He said the scoring system was adjusted for Jews because "they represent a special problem."

4 Witnesses Favor Hike in Phone Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four witnesses appeared before a Utilities Commission hearing today all presenting evidence in favor of a rate increase which would give General Telephone Co. of Ohio more than $1,369,027 revenue annually.

Herbert J. Vrooman of Marion, controller for the company, outlined a history of operating expenses of over the last three years, and Paul Betty of New York, assistant vice president of finance for the General Telephone and Electronics Corp. of New York, outlined what he thought should be a reasonable rate of return for the Ohio company—6.73 per cent. The proposed rate is 6.8 per cent.

Dr. Walter A. Morton of Madison, Wis., professor of economics at the University of Wisconsin, who was employed by the telephone company to conduct a study of the company's economics, said that General's rate of return based on cost of new capital should theoretically be anywhere from 6.8 per cent to 7.2 per cent.

W. Chester Fitch of Camp Hill, Pa., an engineer employed by General to make a study of the annual depreciation accural rates for plant equipment, told the commission just how much equipment would depreciate and what would be needed to replace it.

AP Assigns Reporters at Royal Wedding

LONDON (AP) — Inside Westminster Abbey and along the procession route. The Associated Press will have a team of 20 newsmen and 13 photographers covering the story of the Princess Margaret wedding Friday.

Two Pulitzer Prize winners head the lineup. Eddy Gilmore will report from inside Westminster Abbey for afternoon papers. Relman E. Morin will write the story for morning newspapers.

Another key newsman taking part in the wedding coverage is Hal R. Cooper, who has been in on every major story reporting the drama-packed changes in Britain in the postwar era.

Alvin J. Steinkopf, an AP newsman who has reported events from the start of World War II through Vatican consistories and royal coronations to the sinking of the Flying Enterprise, also will be on the team. Colin Frost, formerly reporting from Warsaw, will be another in the lineup.

The wedding schedule will include these highlights—all British Summer Time, which is six hours ahead of Eastern Standard Time.

10:35 a.m. — The bridesmaids leave Buckingham Palace by car for Westminster Abbey. Antony Armstrong-Jones and his best man follow in another car.

11:30 a.m.—Twelve silver trumpets sound a fanfare and the marriage service starts.

12 noon, approximately — The Archbishop of Canterbury will pronounce Princess Margaret and Antony Armstrong-Jones man and wife.

12:30 p.m., approximately—The service ends. The royal family starts back to Buckingham Palace for the wedding breakfast.

4:15 p.m.—The newlyweds leave Buckingham Palace by car for a pier near the Tower of London.

4:30 p.m. — The newlyweds board the royal yacht Britannia, moored in the Thames.

Grosse Pointe Tells How Jew Can Get OK

DETROIT (AP)—"If a Jew belongs to gentile clubs, it's a sign he has been accepted" and he might be able to buy a home in the suburban Grosse Pointes, says Paul Maxon, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Brokers Assn.

Maxon testified Tuesday at a Michigan State Corporations and Securities Commission hearing on a point-system used in rating prospective home buyers in the exclusive Pointes.

The hearing was ordered by State Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams who said the point system was "morally corrupt." Maxon testified in its defense. A score of 50 is accepted as a standard passing grade. A Jew would require 85 points. Negroes and Orientals are not rated at all.

Maxon said a perfect score for both Jews and gentiles is 100 points, but added that the points are spread differently for Jews in order to give more emphasis on churches, clubs and business associates.

He said the scoring system was adjusted for Jews because "they represent a special problem."

Maxon said a Jew who Americanized his name would get a better score than one who hadn't.

4 Witnesses Favor Hike in Phone Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Four witnesses appeared before a Utilities Commission hearing today all presenting evidence in favor of a rate increase which would give General Telephone Co. of Ohio more than $1,369,027 revenue annually.

Herbert J. Vrooman of Marion, controller for the company, outlined a history of operating expenses of over the last three years, and Paul Betty of New York, assistant vice president of finance for the General Telephone and Electronics Corp. of New York, outlined what he thought should be a reasonable rate of return for the Ohio company—6.73 per cent. The proposed rate is 6.8 per cent.

Dr. Walter A. Morton of Madison, Wis., professor of economics at the University of Wisconsin, who was employed by the telephone company to conduct a study of the company's economics, said that General's rate of return based on cost of new capital should theoretically be anywhere from 6.8 per cent to 7.2 per cent.

W. Chester Fitch of Camp Hill, Pa., an engineer employed by General to make a study of the annual depreciation accural rates for plant equipment, told the commission just how much equipment would depreciate and what would be needed to replace it.

U.S. Court Shuns Ban on Pickets

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. Court of Appeals today refused an injunction to halt picketing of the United Arab Republic ship Cleopatra.

It upheld a ruling of the U.S. District Court.

The picketing has been carried on by the Seafarers International Union and the International Longshoremen's Assn. to protest the U.A.R. barring of ports to United States ships calling at Israeli ports.

NATO Warns Russia About German Jibes

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — The North Atlantic Alliance today warned the Soviet Union to stop its attacks on West Germany and other individual members of their alliance.

Otherwise, said the 15 NATO powers, there can be no peaceful coexistence between them and the Communist world.

DEAR VOTERS:

I personally want to thank everyone who supported me at the polls on May 3rd. I feel that I have proudly and faithfully served all of the citizens of Pickaway County for thirty years and have no regrets in the manner in which I have served or operated my office. I would have continued to have served the same course of action had I been successful in this election. Thanks again.

Yankees Defeat Old Nemesis Lary, Take First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Yankees now have proof of something they've suspected for some time—it would 3be a lot easier to sail into first place in the American League if they could do something about shaking loose from the Detroit Tigers and Frank Lary.

They did just that Wednesday, beating Lary for only the second time in two years with a 4-2 decision that gave them a half-game lead over Chicago's White Sox. Baltimore dropped the Sox to second by beating the defending champs 6-4 Wednesday night.

Washington barred Cleveland from a second place tie with a 7-6 victory over the Indians. The Kansas City As beat Boston 5-3 and jumped free of the cellar as Detroit plunked in with an eighth straight loss.

A six-hit pitching job by rookie Bill Short (2-1) and Elston Howard's two-run homer in the sixth inning made it two in a row over Detroit for the Yankees. Howard, nursing a sore hand, entered the game when catcher Yogi Berra was tossed out by plate umpire John Flaherty for disputing a call in the fourth inning.

Lary (1-2) gave up six hits while losing for the seventh time in 28 career decisions against New York. He's won 12 of the last 15.

The Orioles rapped the White Sox with a four-run seventh inning capped by Brooks Robinson's two-run single after Al Smith's error had enabled the Birds to tie it 4-all. Frank Baumann (1-1) was the loser in relief of Early Wynn.

Hoyt Wilhelm (1-1) was the winner.

Jim Lemon drove in Washington's last four runs, bringing the Senators from behind with a two-run homer in the seventh for their eighth straight one-run decision and 12th in their 14 games.

The Los Angeles Dodgers now have found Bob Buhl to be just as tough as ever.

The bushy-browed right-hander pitched Milwaukee's Braves to a 2-1 victory with a three-hitter at Los Angeles Wedneseay night, beating the Dodgers for the fourth time in a row as Del Crandall single home a run in the second inning and then homered in the ninth.

It was the Dodgers' ninth defeat in their last dozen games and their fourth straight, dropping the fifth place champs two games below .500.

Pittsburgh retained a one-game lead, although the Chicago Cubs—unaware they were playing their final game under manager Charlie Grimm—dealt the Pirates a second consecutive defeat, 5-1. Second place San Francisco blew a chance for a first place tie, losing 3-2 to Cincinnati as Cal McLish won his first with a four-hitter. Fourth place St. Louis made it nine out of 11 by beating Philadelphia 5-3.

Buhl (2-1) had to duel Don Drysdale all the way for this one. Drysdale (3-3) gave up eight hits while going the distance for the fifth time in six starts.

The Cubs handed three -time winner Bob Friend his first loss on the five-hit pitching of Dick Ellsworth, a $70,000 bonus lefty in 1958. Ellsworth, recalled from Houston Tuesday, walked none and struck out four for his first major league victory.

After the game, Lou Boudreau, who skippered three American League clubs before becoming an announcer for Cub games, swapped jobs with Grimm, who lasted just 17 games in his third tour as Bruin manager.

McLish (1-2), the right-hander who became an ace in the AL after only an 8-21 record in the National League, blanked the Giants on one hit after Willie Kirkland's solo home run in the fourth inning. The Reds beat Jack Sanford (2-1) with Roy McMillan's two-out single in the sixth.

The Cards managed two runs but only three hits in seven innings against John Buzhardt, then scored three unearned runs in the eighth for the winless right-hander's third defeat. Joe Cunningham's two-run single was the winning hit, giving the decision to reliever Marshall Bridges (2-0).

Cal McLish Hurls Win For Redlegs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gabe Paul is feeling better.

Cal McLish's sparkling four-hitter not only brought him his first victory as a member of the Cincinnati Reds but the 3-2 decision over the San Francisco Giants Wednesday was the third triumph in a row for the Reds.

Back in Cincinnati, Paul, the general manager of the Reds who bore the brunt of howls from the fans when the Reds went into a tailspin, commented:

"Yes sir, I'm feeling better."

Then he added, "But I still say this is exactly the same ball club that it was a few days ago when we were losing."

"Every club has its ups and downs," he continued. "With us, all of our pitchers seemed to get into a whirlpool at once and all of them were sucked down at once. You just have to wait until they can work out of it.

Wednesday, however, McLish stifled the Giant hitters with three singles and a home run by Willie Kirkland.

The only gloom connected with the Redleg victory was that pitcher Don Newcombe went back to the hospital, apparently with a recurrence of a leg injury that sidelined him near the end of spring training. Newcombe was to fly back to Cincinnati after today's game to be examined by the team's own doctor.

PCC Spring Roundup Set

The Pickaway Country Club annual Spring Roundup stag party will be held Wednesday from noon on.

The dinner menu includes a chicken buffet with free refreshments. Door prizes, donated by local merchants, will be given.

There will be golfing in the afternoon and entertainment provided in the evening. All club members and their guests are invited.

Tickets may be obtained from Robert H. Huffer, T. K. Brunner & Son, Mason Furniture, Block's Shoe Store, the pro shop at the Country Club, Robert MacFadden or any club member.

Rookie Slated To Hurl Game For Indians

Dick Stigman will take the mound Friday night. Gary Bell, getting a four-day rest, will hurl on Saturday.

The Indians face Baltimore after two defeats in the nation's capital. Washington triumphed Wednesday night by that increasingly familiar one-run margin, 7-6. The Senators took over on a two-run homer in the seventh inning by Jim Lemon, who sent four runs across the late during the evening.

Tribe rookie Walt Bond, who homered twice, matched Lemon's four RBI. Ironically, Bond was one of only six Indians who remained on the bench in Washington Tuesday, when Cleveland lost, 7-6 also. All the others were pitchers.

Wednesday night Bond knocked in the Indians first four runs with a homer in the first inning, a single in the third and a two-run homer in the fifth. Against left-handed pitching in the ninth, Bond was removed for a pinch hitter, Jim Piersall.

John Romano contributed a two-run single in the fifth, giving Cleveland a 6-3 advantage, but Lemon stepped up and produced the Senators' next four runs with a single and homer.

The loss was the Tribe's third this year with 13 hits, their season high. They made 13 against Kansas City and lost and did the same against Washington Tuesday night.

The Senators moved into a fourth place tie with the Indians with 7-7 records.

Circleville Junior High Team Tops in All-SCO League Meet

Circleville's 7th and 8th grade track team made a fine showing in the all-league session at Washington C. H. yesterday.

The locals captured two firsts, two seconds and three thirds for 21½ points, the best showing of any team participating.

Dave Dennis brought home a first in the 120 low hurdles with a time of 17.6. The other Circleville first was in the 440-yard relay.

* * *

WOODS finished second in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Horn was third in the century and Dennis was third in the 220.

Junior high coaches John Adler and Jim Lint said they were pleased with the team's excellent showing. Only four events were held in the meet, with Circleville reaping honors in all of them.

Easter Homer Rocks Jets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Richmond Vees suddenly are getting the same fine pitching in the International League that has boosted the parent New York Yankees to the top of the American League.

Zack Monroe hurled the second consecutive shutout over league-leading Buffalo Wednesday, beating the Bisons 2-0 on a repeat of a 6-hitter that Eli Grba hurled Tuesday.

Luke Easter smacked a three-run pinch homer to break a 3-3 tie and give Rochester a 6-3 victory over the Columbus Jets; Havana spoiled Montreal's home opener before 10,000 with an 8-2 victory; and Miami knocked off home-opening Toronto 2-0 at Toronto, before the league's largest 1960 crowd—15,178.

Dountz Has Good Night of Fishing

Billy Dountz, 116 W. Franklin St., had a good round of fishing Tuesday night at Roger's Lake about two miles west of here.

He pulled out 10 fish weighing 17½ pounds in an hour's time. One of the prizes included a 5½-pound channel catfish.

He also brought in several nice perch, ideal for pan frying.

West Cowboys Here Today for Tourney Tilt

Circleville's baseball team opens play in the Central District Class AA tournament today in a meeting with Columbus West on the Ted Lewis Park diamond. The game starts at about 4:30 p. m.

Coach Dick Fisher will have either Sam Weller or Danny Leonhardt available for mound duty.

West boosts one of the better teams in the Columbus City League. The Cowboys own an 8-4 win over Franklin Heights, the same squad which downed Circleville Friday, 6-0.

Lou Boudreau To Pilot Cubs

Grimm Is Edged Out In Surprise Switch

CHICAGO (AP)—In an unprecedented baseball switch, former American League pilot Lou Boudreau today took over from Charlie Grimm as manager of the Chicago Cubs.

In effect, Boudreau handed a radio microphone to 62-year-old Grimm in exchange for managership of the wobbily Cubs after a typically abrupt decision by Cub owner P. K. Wrigley Wednesday.

The unpredictable Wrigley, who on three separate occasions had named Grimm as Cub boss, decided he didn't want to see jolly Cholly "take a beating" and named Boudreau, 42, manager as "just plain common sense."

Boudreau former star shortstop and manager of the Cleveland Indians, Boston Red Sox and Kansas City As took over direction of the Cubs shortly after the Chicagoans posted a 5-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Boudreau has been a commentator on Cub games for the past two seasons. He supplemented the play-by-play by Jack Quinland on WGN.

Now, the pride of suburban Harvey, Ill.—an athletic legend on the University of Illinois campus — can translate into action some of the ideas which he said have been going through his mind in the broadcasting booths.

Boudreau, who was replaced by Harry Craft as manager of the Kansas City As in 1957, said it was a good feeling to get back into uniform again, but in particular the uniform of the Chicago Cubs.

Yankees Defeat Old Nemesis Lary, Take First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Yankees now have proof of something they've suspected for some time—it would 3be a lot easier to sail into first place in the American League if they could do something about shaking loose from the Detroit Tigers and Frank Lary.

They did just that Wednesday, beating Lary for only the second time in two years with a 4-2 decision that gave them a half-game lead over Chicago's White Sox. Baltimore dropped the Sox to second by beating the defending champs 6-4 Wednesday night.

Washington barred Cleveland from a second place tie with a 7-6 victory over the Indians. The Kansas City As beat Boston 5-3 and jumped free of the cellar as Detroit plunked in with an eighth straight loss.

A six-hit pitching job by rookie Bill Short (2-1) and Elston Howard's two-run homer in the sixth inning made it two in a row over Detroit for the Yankees. Howard, nursing a sore hand, entered the game when catcher Yogi Berra was tossed out by plate umpire John Flaherty for disputing a call in the fourth inning.

Lary (1-2) gave up six hits while losing for the seventh time in 28 career decisions against New York. He's won 12 of the last 15.

The Orioles rapped the White Sox with a four-run seventh inning capped by Brooks Robinson's two-run single after Al Smith's error had enabled the Birds to tie it 4-all. Frank Baumann (1-1) was the loser in relief of Early Wynn.

Hoyt Wilhelm (1-1) was the winner.

Jim Lemon drove in Washington's last four runs, bringing the Senators from behind with a two-run homer in the seventh for their eighth straight one-run decision and 12th in their 14 games.

The As, winning on the road for the first time in eight tries, broke a shutout duel between winner Dick Hall (2-0) and Tom Brewer (0-2) with three runs in the fifth.

The Los Angeles Dodgers now have found Bob Buhl to be just as tough as ever.

The bushy-browed right-hander pitched Milwaukee's Braves to a 2-1 victory with a three-hitter at Los Angeles Wedneseay night, beating the Dodgers for the fourth time in a row as Del Crandall single home a run in the second inning and then homered in the ninth.

It was the Dodgers' ninth defeat in their last dozen games and their fourth straight, dropping the fifth place champs two games below .500.

Pittsburgh retained a one-game lead, although the Chicago Cubs—unaware they were playing their final game under manager Charlie Grimm—dealt the Pirates a second consecutive defeat, 5-1. Second place San Francisco blew a chance for a first place tie, losing 3-2 to Cincinnati as Cal McLish won his first with a four-hitter. Fourth place St. Louis made it nine out of 11 by beating Philadelphia 5-3.

Buhl (2-1) had to duel Don Drysdale all the way for this one. Drysdale (3-3) gave up eight hits while going the distance for the fifth time in six starts.

The Cubs handed three -time winner Bob Friend his first loss on the five-hit pitching of Dick Ellsworth, a $70,000 bonus lefty in 1958. Ellsworth, recalled from Houston Tuesday, walked none and struck out four for his first major league victory.

After the game, Lou Boudreau, who skippered three American League clubs before becoming an announcer for Cub games, swapped jobs with Grimm, who lasted just 17 games in his third tour as Bruin manager.

McLish (1-2), the right-hander who became an ace in the AL after only an 8-21 record in the National League, blanked the Giants on one hit after Willie Kirkland's solo home run in the fourth inning. The Reds beat Jack Sanford (2-1) with Roy McMillan's two-out single in the sixth.

The Cards managed two runs but only three hits in seven innings against John Buzhardt, then scored three unearned runs in the eighth for the winless right-hander's third defeat. Joe Cunningham's two-run single was the winning hit, giving the decision to reliever Marshall Bridges (2-0).

Cal McLish Hurls Win For Redlegs

Cal McLish's sparkling four-hitter not only brought him his first victory as a member of the Cincinnati Reds but the 3-2 decision over the San Francisco Giants Wednesday was the third triumph in a row for the Reds.

Back in Cincinnati, Paul, the general manager of the Reds who bore the brunt of howls from the fans when the Reds went into a tailspin, commented:

"Yes sir, I'm feeling better."

Then he added, "But I still say this is exactly the same ball club that it was a few days ago when we were losing."

"Every club has its ups and downs," he continued. "With us, all of our pitchers seemed to get into a whirlpool at once and all of them were sucked down at once. You just have to wait until they can work out of it.

Wednesday, however, McLish stifled the Giant hitters with three singles and a home run by Willie Kirkland.

The only gloom connected with the Redleg victory was that pitcher Don Newcombe went back to the hospital, apparently with a recurrence of a leg injury that sidelined him near the end of spring training. Newcombe was to fly back to Cincinnati after today's game to be examined by the team's own doctor.

PCC Spring Roundup Set

The Pickaway Country Club annual Spring Roundup stag party will be held Wednesday from noon on.

The dinner menu includes a chicken buffet with free refreshments. Door prizes, donated by local merchants, will be given.

There will be golfing in the afternoon and entertainment provided in the evening. All club members and their guests are invited.

Tickets may be obtained from Robert H. Huffer, T. K. Brunner & Son, Mason Furniture, Block's Shoe Store, the pro shop at the Country Club, Robert MacFadden or any club member.

Rookie Slated To Hurl Game For Indians

Dick Stigman will take the mound Friday night. Gary Bell, getting a four-day rest, will hurl on Saturday.

The Indians face Baltimore after two defeats in the nation's capital. Washington triumphed Wednesday night by that increasingly familiar one-run margin, 7-6. The Senators took over on a two-run homer in the seventh inning by Jim Lemon, who sent four runs across the late during the evening.

Tribe rookie Walt Bond, who homered twice, matched Lemon's four RBI. Ironically, Bond was one of only six Indians who remained on the bench in Washington Tuesday, when Cleveland lost, 7-6 also. All the others were pitchers.

Wednesday night Bond knocked in the Indians first four runs with a homer in the first inning, a single in the third and a two-run homer in the fifth. Against left-handed pitching in the ninth, Bond was removed for a pinch hitter, Jim Piersall.

John Romano contributed a two-run single in the fifth, giving Cleveland a 6-3 advantage, but Lemon stepped up and produced the Senators' next four runs with a single and homer.

Hal Woodeshick, like Lemon a former Indian, claimed the victory in relief. He hurled shutout ball the last four rounds.

The loss was the Tribe's third this year with 13 hits, their season high. They made 13 against Kansas City and lost and did the same against Washington Tuesday night.

The Senators moved into a fourth place tie with the Indians with 7-7 records.

Easter Homer Rocks Jets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Richmond Vees suddenly are getting the same fine pitching in the International League that has boosted the parent New York Yankees to the top of the American League.

Zack Monroe hurled the second consecutive shutout over league-leading Buffalo Wednesday, beating the Bisons 2-0 on a repeat of a 6-hitter that Eli Grba hurled Tuesday.

Luke Easter smacked a three-run pinch homer to break a 3-3 tie and give Rochester a 6-3 victory over the Columbus Jets; Havana spoiled Montreal's home opener before 10,000 with an 8-2 victory; and Miami knocked off home-opening Toronto 2-0 at Toronto, before the league's largest 1960 crowd—15,178.

Dountz Has Good Night of Fishing

Billy Dountz, 116 W. Franklin St., had a good round of fishing Tuesday night at Roger's Lake about two miles west of here.

He pulled out 10 fish weighing 17½ pounds in an hour's time. One of the prizes included a 5½-pound channel catfish.

He also brought in several nice perch, ideal for pan frying.

West Cowboys Here Today for Tourney Tilt

Circleville's baseball team opens play in the Central District Class AA tournament today in a meeting with Columbus West on the Ted Lewis Park diamond. The game starts at about 4:30 p. m.

Coach Dick Fisher will have either Sam Weller or Danny Leonhardt available for mound duty.

West boosts one of the better teams in the Columbus City League. The Cowboys own an 8-4 win over Franklin Heights, the same squad which downed Circleville Friday, 6-0.

SPORTS BRIEFS

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, golf's big man this year, has garnered $47,700 in 14 tournaments entered this season.

NEW YORK (AP) — Eleven past winners and titleholders from four other nations are in the record field of 2,480 seeking the 60th U. S. Open golf championship this year.

Lou Boudreau To Pilot Cubs

Grimm Is Edged Out In Surprise Switch

CHICAGO (AP)—In an unprecedented baseball switch, former American League pilot Lou Boudreau today took over from Charlie Grimm as manager of the Chicago Cubs.

In effect, Boudreau handed a radio microphone to 62-year-old Grimm in exchange for managership of the wobbily Cubs after a typically abrupt decision by Cub owner P. K. Wrigley Wednesday.

The unpredictable Wrigley, who on three separate occasions had named Grimm as Cub boss, decided he didn't want to see jolly Cholly "take a beating" and named Boudreau, 42, manager as "just plain common sense."

Boudreau former star shortstop and manager of the Cleveland Indians, Boston Red Sox and Kansas City As took over direction of the Cubs shortly after the Chicagoans posted a 5-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Boudreau has been a commentator on Cub games for the past two seasons. He supplemented the play-by-play by Jack Quinland on WGN.

Now, the pride of suburban Harvey, Ill.—an athletic legend on the University of Illinois campus — can translate into action some of the ideas which he said have been going through his mind in the broadcasting booths.

Boudreau, who was replaced by Harry Craft as manager of the Kansas City As in 1957, said it was a good feeling to get back into uniform again, but in particular the uniform of the Chicago Cubs.

Kuhn Wins 2 Go-Kart Races

Cletus Kuhn Jr. won the consolation and feature events at the CBS Park Speedway Go - Kart races last night in Lancaster.

Kuhn broke the tape in the consolation and feature races to win two trophies. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Kuhn, 448 Stella Ave.

In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Agnes Andrews who passed away May 5th, 1952

Eight years ago God called you to that home beyond the sea. A gentle voice said come, "Abide with me", and with farewells unspoken you breathed your final sigh To enter the arms of Jesus There to await us from on High What a friend we have in Jesus who will all our sorrow share We should never be discouraged Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Sadly missed by her husband Russell and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Frazier, brothers Emmett and Robert and sister Mary.

Ohio Idle Pay Claims Decline

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Claims for unemployment compensation in Ohio continue to decline.

For the third week in a row, new claims and continuing claims of those unemployed for one week or more showed decreases, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reported.

For the week ended April 30, new claims fell from 14,500 to 13,148, and continuing claims from 107,904 to 102,836.

The average number of new claims filed weekly in April of 1959 was 9,381, and continuing claims 71,848.

In Memoriam

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Agnes Andrews who passed away May 8th, 1952

Eight years ago God called you to that home beyond the sea. A gentle voice said come. "Abide with me", and with farewells unspoken you breathed your final sigh. To enter the arms of Jesus there to wait us from on High What a friend we have in Jesus who will all our sorrow, share. We should never be discouraged Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Jury Believes Castro Behind Yank Flights

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A federal grand jury charges that a flight by two American pilots to Cuba March 21—cited by the Cuban press at the time as "another example of American intervention"—was arranged by the Fidel Castro government.

An indictment made public Wednesday accused the fliers, William J. Shergalis of Hollywood, Fla., and Howard L. Rundquist, of San Rafael, Calif., of having departed from the United States for Cuba without filing a flight plan required under Federal Aviation Agency regulations.

Shergalis, 33, and Rundquist, 35 are understood to be in custody of the Cuban government, the Justice Department said in Washington. It said it had "no immediate plans for seeking to extradite them back to the United States."

Cuba complained in March that a light plane flown by Shergalis and Rundquist flew from Miami to Cuba to pick up political foes of Castro and fly them to the United States.

Press reports out of Cuba the day of the flight said they landed their rented plane near Matanzas and were captured by Cuban soldiers.

Friends in the South

OCONOMOWOC, Wis. (AP) — Mark Cross, 13, great-great-grandson of a man who fought for the Union in the Civil War, is an honorary member of the Sons of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

A visitor from Mississippi heard about Mark's intense interest in the War between the States from the Southern point of view. When he returned home he mentioned the boy over a short wave radio station. Mark received several gifts from Mississippi residents, including an honorary membership in the Noxubee Rifles Post of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Climatic Atlas

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — An Atlas of world climatic conditions existing 150 million years ago is being prepared at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

Robert Bowen, English paleontologist working on the project with support from the Atomic Energy Commission and the National Science Foundation, studies fossils of an extinct sea creature called Belemnoid. They are found on every continent and the chemical components of their shells, which varied with temperatures, gives the climatic clues.

Soviet Red Command Is Shaken Up

MOSCOW (AP) — A sweeping shakeup in the Soviet government and Communist party organization was announced Wednesday night.

The reshuffle — first since the antiparty purge of Georgi Malenkov, V. M. Molotov and Lazar Kaganovich in June, 1957—left Khrushchev clearly in command.

It carried ramifications that Western observers regarded as significant in long-range Soviet planning, with apparent emphasis on speeding up his seven-year economic plan and whipping up new enthusiasm in the party machinery by promotion of younger elements.

In a major switch, Frol R. Kozlov was relieved as first deputy premier and made a secretary of the Soviet Communist Party Central Committee. The 51-year-old Kozlov, who toured the United States last year to lay the groundwork for Khrushchev's visit was one of two first deputy premiers. The other, A. I. Mikoyan, remains unaffected by the shakeup.

(Harrison E. Salisbury, a New York Times expert on Soviet affairs, said the switch meant an important promotion for Kozlov. He pointed out that chief Soviet power is vested in the party hierarchy, not in the government apparatus).

Prune Those Trees

If your trees develop diseased, injured or undesirable growth, pruning will help them to regain strength.

To get full beauty from large shade, fruit or flowering trees, prune immediately after planting. In this way most of the undesirable characteristics can be corrected before they get out of hand.

Keith says to remove one-third to one-half of the foliage by cutting off secondary side branches. Then remove the sucker growth from inner portions of branches. You can guard against infection after cutting by painting with asphalt-base tree paint.

'FLIGHT PAY'—Disc jockey Dick Clark (middle) gestures as he talks to reporters in Washington after the payola hearing at which he was accused of improperly taking $7,000 from American airlines for broadcast plugs. Behind him is his attorney, Paul Porter

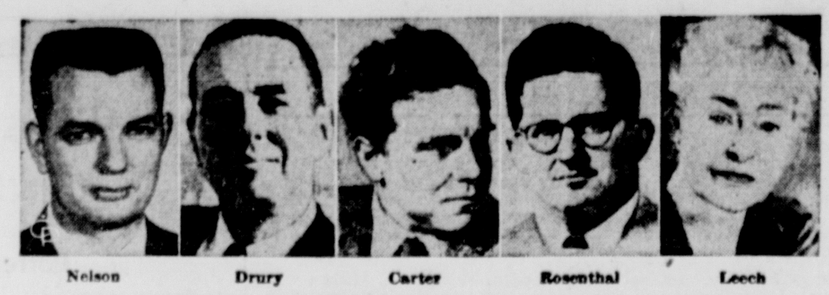

Election Ends Race For 18 Candidates

Campbell, chief probation officer, topped a 16-man Democratic field, getting 7,051 votes to lead his nearest competitor, former Sheriff Ray Woodard, by about 1,500 votes.

Nelson Drury Carter Rosenthal Leech

PULITZER WINNERS—Winners of 1960 Pulitzer Prizes include these five, announced in New York: local reporting (Georgia mental institutions), John H. Nelson, Atlanta Constitution; fiction ("Advise and Consent"), Allen Drury; music ("Second String Quartet"), Elliott Carter; foreign correspondence (Poland), A. M. Rosenthal, New York Times; U. S. history ("In the Days of McKinley"), Margaret Leech.

A visitor from Mississippi heard about Mark's intense interest in the War between the States from the Southern point of view. When he returned home he mentioned the boy over a short wave radio station. Mark received several gifts from Mississippi residents, including an honorary membership in the Noxubee Rifles Post of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Climatic Atlas

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — An Atlas of world climatic conditions existing 150 million years ago is being prepared at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

Robert Bowen, English paleontologist working on the project with support from the Atomic Energy Commission and the National Science Foundation, studies fossils of an extinct sea creature called Belemnoid. They are found on every continent and the chemical components of their shells, which varied with temperatures, gives the climatic clues.

Soviet Red Command Is Shaken Up

MOSCOW (AP) — A sweeping shakeup in the Soviet government and Communist party organization was announced Wednesday night.

It carried ramifications that Western observers regarded as significant in long-range Soviet planning, with apparent emphasis on speeding up his seven-year economic plan and whipping up new enthusiasm in the party machinery by promotion of younger elements.

In a major switch, Frol R. Kozlov was relieved as first deputy premier and made a secretary of the Soviet Communist Party Central Committee. The 51-year-old Kozlov, who toured the United States last year to lay the ground work for Khrushchev's visit was one of two first deputy premiers. The other, A. I. Mikoyan, remains unaffected by the shakeup.

(Harrison E. Salisbury, a New York Times expert on Soviet affairs, said the switch meant an important promotion for Kozlov. He pointed out that chief Soviet power is vested in the party hierarchy, not in the government apparatus).

Prune Those Trees

If your trees develop diseased, injured or undesirable growth, pruning will help them to regain strength.

To get full beauty from large shade, fruit or flowering trees, prune immediately after planting. In this way most of the undesirable characteristics can be corrected before they get out of hand.

Keith says to remove one-third to one-half of the foliage by cutting off secondary side branches. Then remove the sucker growth from inner portions of branches. You can guard against infection after cutting by painting with asphalt-base tree paint.

Election Ends Race For 18 Candidates

Campbell, chief probation officer, topped a 16-man Democratic field, getting 7,051 votes to lead his nearest competitor, former Sheriff Ray Woodard, by about 1,500 votes.
